PRESIDENT'S HARDY'S MESSAGE

Harper's Weekly, once the most famous "journal of civilization" in America, now remembered only by the generation that is passing, carried, in an issue of several decades ago, a small cartoon of a colored mammy and a little pickaninny, with a bit of dialogue that ran something like this:

"Chile, how ole you is?"

"Well, if you goes by what my mammy says, I'se six; but if you goes by de fun I'se had, I'se a hunderd."

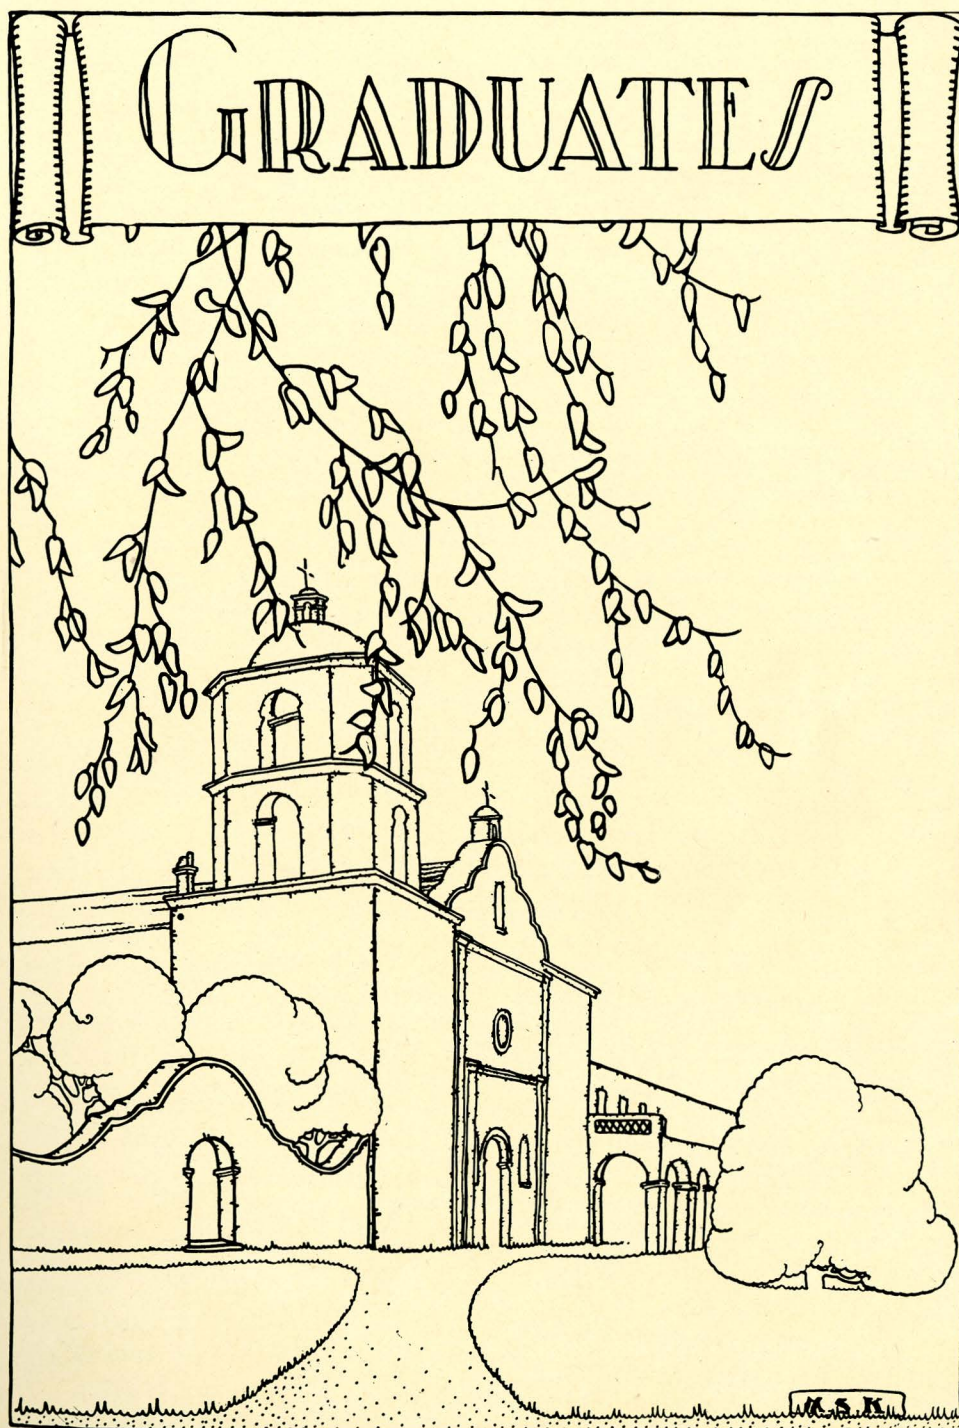

Our "State College" child is now only two years old, "going on three," and is chronologically an infant; but, if experiences make for development, it must be counted as at least of adolescent years.

Beginning the current year with a large and crowded summer session, under the direction, as acting president, of Professor Irving E. Outcalt, with several new faculty members and with both president of the college and the dean of the junior college division absent respectively at the University of Chicago and Stanford University, the institution met the test, significant as to organization and morale, of ability to produce leadership from within.

To both commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the faculty and the student body, the opening of the regular academic year in September brought problems in plenty. The large enrollment of new students, the taking on of upper divisional courses in anticipation of degree status, the administration of new collegiate and professional courses all along the line, kept the executive officers of the college sufficiently busy. Student activities centered about the two focal points of the social life of the college and athletics. The really brilliant achievements of the college in athletics are so abundantly recorded and illustrated in the pages of this chronicle that "he who runs may read"—in the true form of an athlete.

All contests of 1922-1923 pale before that of the "budget." It took the combined efforts of the state officers, faculty, student body, community and legislative delegation to win the battle. Having won our battle of the Marne, our next task is to use wisely the fruits of the victory.

Yes, we have lived, in this year of '23, soon to be a year of memories only. But they are such memories that those of us who have been privileged to participate in them will never forget them.

The main task of the Sophomores has been the education of the Frosh. Severe measures were taken early in the year and obedience commanded "Unto the End."

Several interclass events were staged with the Sophomores winning the baseball series two games to one, the last ending 25-2, in favor of the upper classmen.

The work of the Social Committee has been under the direction of Bernice Cornell. Her committee has been composed of Minnielee Spratlin and Tom Hester.

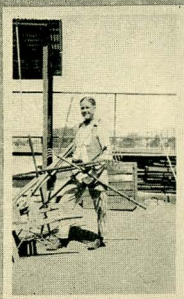

FRESHMEN

HENRY PARRISH	President
ELIZABETH LEE	Vice-President
HAROLD MACARTHUR	Secretary
BURTON MCKIM	Treasurer

From the beginning of the first semester when the J. C. and T. C. Freshmen were united to form one class the organization has been exceedingly active. The "Frosh Trot" was given in December and proved very successful. Then the cross country run was won from the Sophs by a 38 to 18 score, soon to be followed by a 72 to 47 victory in track. At the end of the year a boat ride was held, followed by a Sport Dance at Roseville. George Chester and Edward Kinney won the interclass debate.

A large number of Freshmen have taken a prominent part in college life. Half of the athletic teams have been recruited from the lower class.

The Associated Men's Club, or the Stags, as it is more familiarly known, was organized a year ago, in the spring of 1922, for the purpose of increasing good-fellowship among the men as well as to carry on other activities which would tend toward the improvement of the State College and college spirit.

The first real job accomplished by the Stags was the cleaning off of the athletic field. Classes were dismissed for the day while the men of the student body with several of the men of the faculty put in a day of hard labor.

Several lectures have been delivered at Stag meetings during the year. The most prominent speaker was Elwood T. Bailey, celebrated lecturer. A smoker was also held during the second semester.

THE College Y was organized in the Spring of 1922 for the purpose of gathering together a representative group of college men to talk over college problems and promote a Christian standard of living in the College. Meetings were suspended during football season, but were again held after the Christmas holidays. During the last semester three meetings a month have been held in the Student Body Room of the college with the other one held at the Y. M. C. A.

Coach Peterson was chosen as faculty advisor and has contributed considerably to the success of the club.

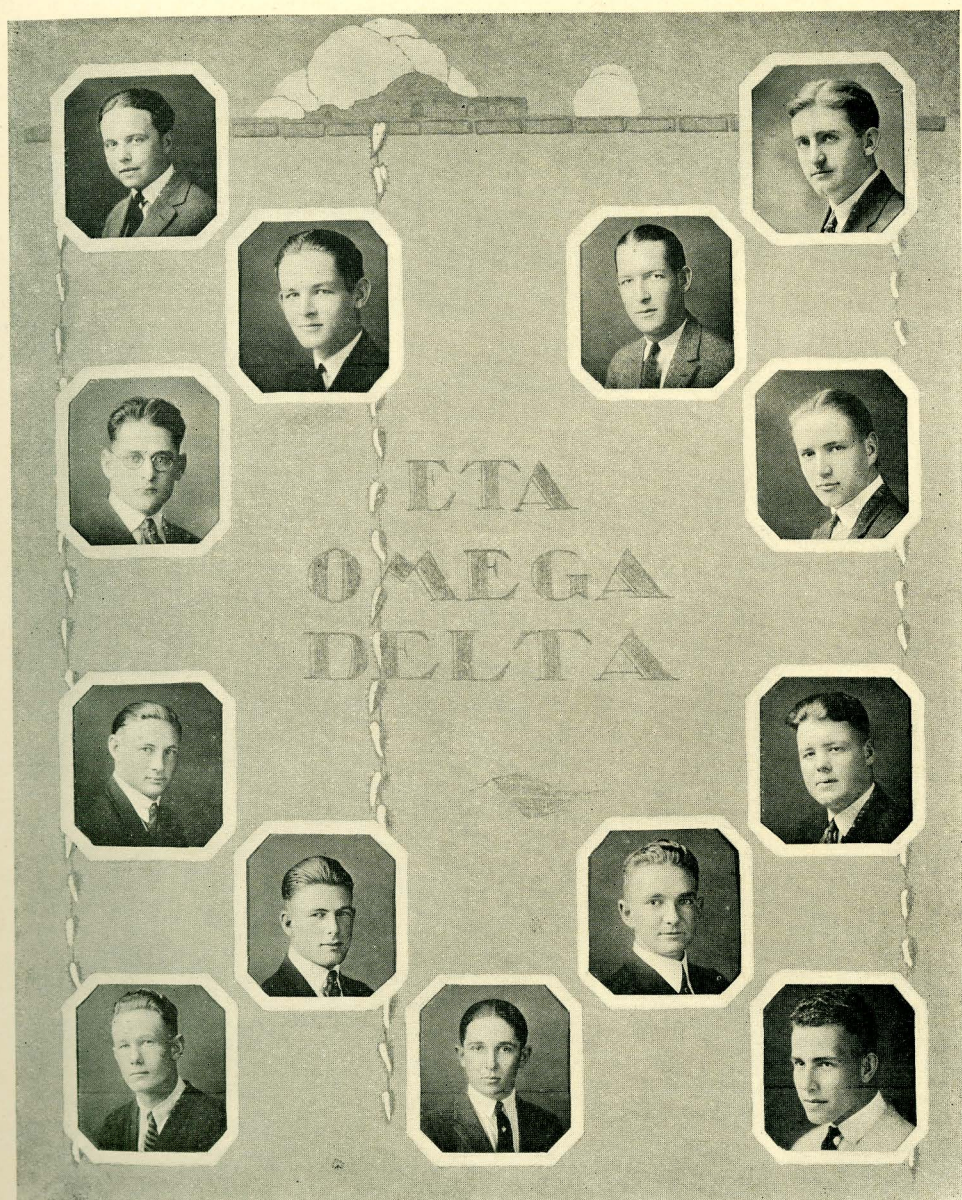

The officers chosen for the first semester were: Scott King, president; Ross Hardy, vice-president; Frederic C. Osenberg, secretary; Joe Vurgason, treasurer.

FRESHMEN RECEPTION

The opening event of the social year was an informal reception and dance held Friday evening, September 15, as a welcome to both old and new students.

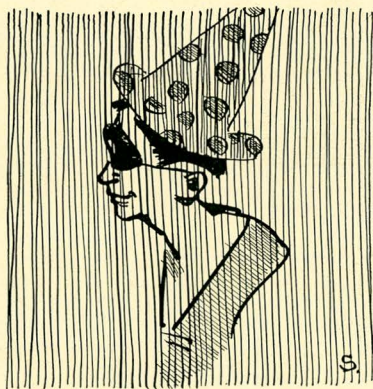

During the evening a program was given. Webster Street and Bill Hawley put on a vaudeville sketch introducing Webster Street's new song, "My Home Town." Later, Miss Mary Greiner and Webster Street gave an interpretation of the Argentine Tango.

Mrs. Coldwell chaperoned and several members of the faculty were present at the affair.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Pumpkin pie and apples were the features of the Hallowe'en Party held in the studio, October 27. It was a costume affair, Dora Chambers and Harry Stuart winning the costume prizes. Wallace Johnson and Carolyn Eggleston won the prize fox trot.

Those on the various committees were: Marjorie Kelly, Elsa Hamann, Beatrice Hunt and Irene Pickeral, art advertising; Fred Osenburg, Earl Andreen and Margaret Lowry, pie cutters; Evelyn Rice, Carolyn Eggleston, Harriet Pearson, Margaret Inwood and Katherine Inwood, refreshments; Alton Harpst, music. Margaret Jamison was chairman of the entire committee.

YE FROSH TROT

"Ye Frosh Trot" was held in the studio Friday, the evening of December 8, and was a decided success. Decorations, in pea-green, were in the form of streamers, balloons and foliage. The favors consisted of green and white Follies caps for the girls and small boutonniere pom-poms for the men.

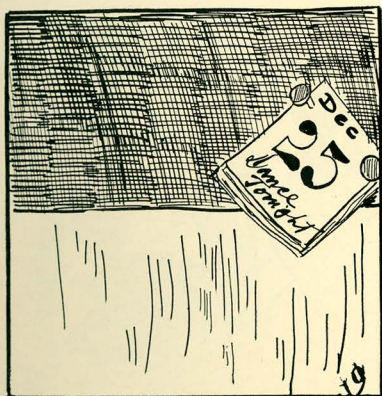

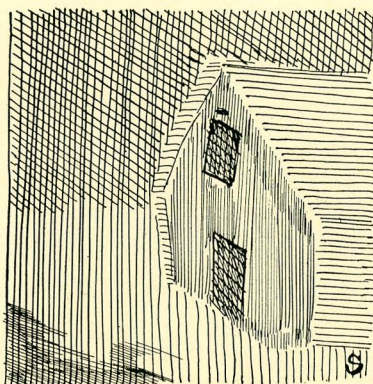

The committee that arranged the dance consisted of Margaret Parker, Margaret Lewis, Wallace Johnson, Fred Morrison, Earl Andreen and Burton McKim. About one hundred couples attended the affair.

ENGLISH CLUB BARN DANCE

The English Club's Annual Barn Dance was held early in November. The guests danced old-fashioned dances to old-fashioned music amid rustic decorations. Many wore rustic costumes. Refreshments took the form of cider, served in wooden cups.

Carolyn Sprague, president of the English Club, was chairman of the committee.

This was the second Barn Dance given by the English Club, the proceeds of which were devoted to the Scholarship Fund.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

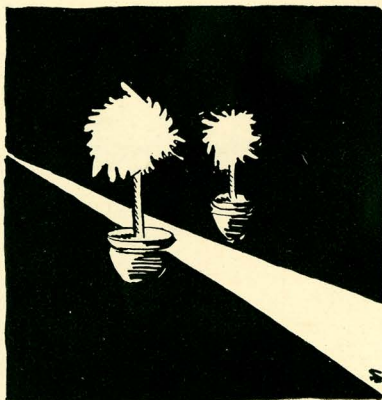

THE Christmas Party was held the afternoon of the last day of school before the Christmas vacation. It was in the form of an afternoon dance.

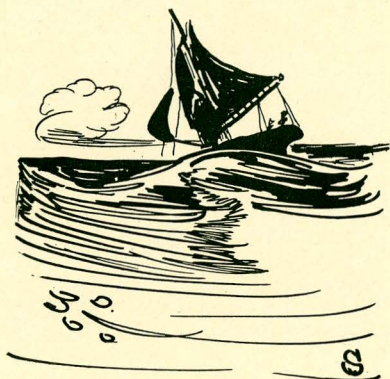

Punch was served along with red and green candy. The decorations were carried out in the Christmas motif.

"BLACK AND WHITE BALL"

The Epsilon Etas Black and White Ball was given the evening of Friday, December 15. The decorations were carried out in black and white, the colors of the organization, with poinsettias to give the holiday note.

The guests were: Dwight Andreen, Laurence Hathaway, Collins Macrae, Earl Andreen, Wilson Chase, Fred Reichel, Carl Ackerman, George P. Wilson, Joe Varney, Ross Hardy and Sam Russo.

ALBATROSS DANCE

A large semi-formal dance was given in the studio Friday, February 16, by the Albatross Rowing Crew. The studio was decorated in the crew colors of green and white in the form of streamers, white roses and foliage. The feature of the decorations was the crew emblem composed of crossed oars and the albatross, the "patron" bird of the crew.

The hostesses were: Betty Lee, Ruth Westcott, Margaret Lewis, Margaret Parker, Dorothy Westcott, Carrie Mitchell, Wenefred Batten, Betty Clemens, Lucy Swallow, Louise Baptiste, Vera Casady, Alice Donnelly and Minnielie Spratlin.

SPHINX DANCE

The last dance of the college years was a sport dance given in the studio by the Sphinx the evening of May 18. Refreshments were served in a beach tent. The decorations were in the form of beach umbrellas and other sporting paraphernalia.

The hostesses were: Margaret Lowry, Mildred Bergen, Lucille Stiles, Mildred Raybourn, Agnes Ridgway, Evalynn Rice, Ruth Schiferle, Katherine Inwood, Margaret Inwood, Betty Eves and Harriet Pearson.

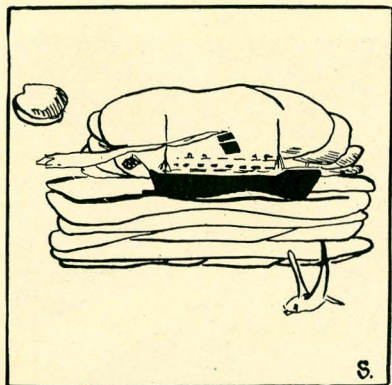

FROSH BOAT RIDE

ON THE evening of Saturday, May 26, the Frosh Class held a boat ride and dance at the Officers' Club on North Island.

Unique wooden dance programs for the dance were given out. The committee in charge consisted of Margaret Parker, Betty Lee, Edward Kinney, Earl Andreen, Ray Amend and Henry Parrish.

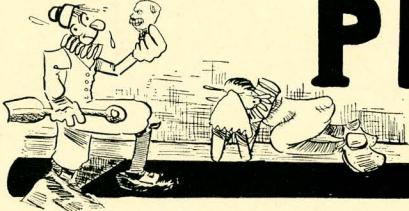

The party left on the boat, "Virginia," at 7.30 P. M. After cruising about the bay and dancing at the Officers' Club, the boat headed for the ocean. The boat returned at about 11.30.

TWO MASQUE PLAYERS

Previous to this year the Two Masque Players was confined to membership from the Teachers College. However, last fall the Two Masque Players and the Dramatic Society, of the Junior College, voted to combine in a larger group, to be known by the name of the older organization, The Two Masque Players. Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Tohill, the new Dramatic Coach of the College, try-outs have been held and a number of plays produced.

The Two Masque Players have confined their productions this year to one-act plays. Among those presented either in assembly or at regular evening meetings are:

MISS LULU BETT" was the play selected as the annual spring production. It was written by Zona Gale and was awarded the Pulitzer prize by Columbia University as the best American play of the year.

The cast includes a number of students who have appeared in previous college productions. Dwight Andreen played the lead in "Cousin Kate," last year's offering, and also appeared in the "Trysting Place" in this year's Kollege Kut-Ups. Mary Greiner also appeared in "The Trysting Place." Alvin Morrison has appeared in a number of minor productions.

Mary Greiner plays the title role as "Lulu," with Alvin Morrison as "Ninian Deacon" opposite her. Dwight Andreen plays the important part of Dwight Deacon, the self-righteous brother-in-law. Ina Deacon is played by Irma Coons. Louise Gabriel plays the part of Monona, the spoiled child. Bartie Reams and Alton Harpst play the part of Diana Deacon and Bobby Larkin. Nail Cornish is played by Daniel Mendolewitz.

The play is very ably directed by Miss Elizabeth Tohill, Dramatic Coach.

ALPHA MU SIGMA

ALPHA MU SIGMA, of the Associated Musical Societies, is composed of four musical organizations. They are the Treble Clef, Men's Glee Club, the Orchestra and the Double Quartette. Each of these organizations has given several concerts and has visited most of the larger communities in the county.

The Treble Clef sang at Sweetwater Union High School, Grossmont, the Neighborhood House, San Diego Club House, and at the Federated Women's Clubs. The Men's Glee Club sang at Escondido and Coronado, while the Double Quartette gave concerts at Sweetwater, Grossmont, Escondido, Coronado, Rotary Club and the San Diego High School. Confining its activities to the college the orchestra has rendered several programs in assemblies.

The activities of the Alpha Mu Sigma are managed by a board composed of the presidents of the subsidiary organizations and the Executive Secretary. The members are: Earl Andreen from the Orchestra, Mildred Bergen from the Treble Clef, Alvin Morrison from the Men's Glee Club, Alfred Tarr from the Double Quartette, and Bernice Cornell, the Executive Secretary. Miss Deborah Smith has been the musical director, while Mr. Chesley Mills has directed the orchestra.

Fire Prince

WITH a cast of approximately sixty students "The Fire-Prince," a comic opera, proved to be the greatest and most spectacular musical event staged in the Greek Theatre, as the Spring Festival, in recent years. The acting was of a high character and the musical interpretation was excellent. Miss Deborah Smith, the director, and the cast set a standard for musical productions which will be difficult to surpass.

The cast is as follows:

Grogno, King of Pantouflia	ALFRED TARR
Prigio, his eldest son, the Fire Prince	WILBERT ANDERSON
Alphonso, Prigio's brother	FRED BUTZINE
Enrico, Prigio's brother	DUDLEY ROBINSON

Summary

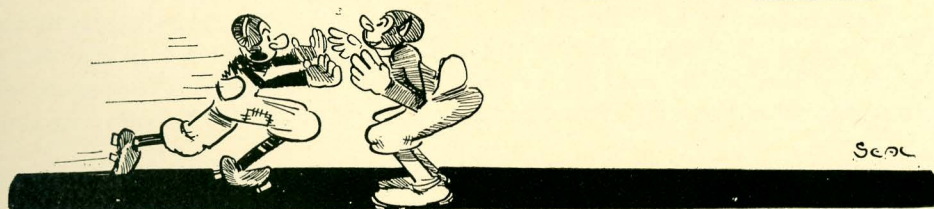

Conference championships in football, basketball and track, and a tie for first place in tennis, rewarded Coach Peterson and the Student Body this year.

Never before have athletics received the Student Body support they received this year. Never before have so many men turned out for each sport. Never before has the San Diego State College or the Junior College had a more successful year.

To Coach Peterson, the blue ribbon and gold medal coach, the Student Body gives its unstinted praise and affection.

May his coming years be even more successful than this has been.

Scoring 107 points to their opponents' 6 in league games, and holding three four-year colleges to creditable scores, the State College made a fine record for the second year of its career.

The hardest fought league game was the one with Chaffey on Thanksgiving Day. San Diego won the Southern California title by putting over a touchdown in the last six minutes of play.

Another advance in football this year was the forming of a second team that made a good showing in its games, winning four games and losing two.

The team was well supported by the student body; a complete outfit of new uniforms and equipment was provided; three games were arranged with northern colleges; and the students came in a body to the games played at San Diego.

The team itself was the best the school has ever had. Under the direction of Coaches Peterson and Durham, the latter a former all-Pacific quarterback, the team developed a style of play that won for it the championship.

The record of each man, briefly given, is as follows:

TOM HESTER, Captain, second year on varsity. Started season at right guard, but was shifted to fullback. He made seven out of the sixteen touchdowns scored by the team in league games. He was the mainstay of the team in taking the ball over on line plunges.

TED ALLEN, Captain-Elect. First year on varsity. As a roving center he was unequalled in the league. His height enabled him to intercept short forward passes over the line. In the Chaffey game he broke up several of their passes. He was strong on offense and defense, and may do the punting for the team next year.

JOHN HANCOCK. Second year on varsity. At quarterback he proved a brainy pilot of the team. He was a sure man on defense and made substantial gains through his end runs. His signal calling in the 50-0 victory over Santa Ana attracted special attention.

SAM RUSSO. Second year on varsity. At halfback he shared ground-gaining honors with Hester. Russo was the best man on the team at grabbing a forward pass with two or three opponents hanging on him. He received two long passes in the Chaffey game. He first attracted attention in the Occidental game by his line plunges and intercepting of passes.

JOHN SQUIRES. First year on varsity. He threw most of San Diego's forward passes from the halfback position. In the last part of the season he did especially good work in returning punts. He was also good for yards on end runs.

HENRY PARRISH. First year on varsity. His playing in the Whittier game gave him a berth at end. He also did most of the drop-kicking. "Hank" was a good man on defense, nailing most of the plays around his end.

ALDEN ROSS. First year on varsity. He was the best all-round end on the team. His long punts pulled the Statesmen out of some tight places. Alden was a good man at stopping plays around his end and some of his end runs from a fake punt formation brought the crowd to its feet.

ALFRED TARR. Second year on varsity. Alfred was probably the best tackle in the league. It was seldom that anything went through his side of the line and he opened up many holes for backfield men. As a guard on last year's team he was put on the all-southern team.

JULIAN POHL. Second year on varsity. At the other tackle Pohl played a steady, consistent game. His work was not brilliant or flashy, but he was always in the way when the other side tried to go through the line.

HENRY FRANCIS. First year on varsity. "Hank" was a new man at the game, but his strength and fighting spirit won him a place at guard, where he always "got his man." He was a fast man and ran good interference for the backfield in the "guards back" play.

EDWARD STAHLFELD. First year on varsity. He was a dependable man at the other guard position. He and Francis were a good pair at stopping line plays and running interference.

ALVIN MORRISON. Second year on varsity. "Babe" was a substitute back-field man and was a good player at either fullback or halfback. He was a good ground-gainer, and his long end runs in the early part of the season accounted for several touchdowns in practice games.

MORRIS GROSS. First year on varsity. Morris achieved fame in the Chaffey game, when he went in for Hancock in the last quarter, intercepted a forward pass, and ran sixty yards through a broken field, making possible the only touchdown of the game. Gross was a good open-field runner and called signals well.

SPENCER HELD. First year on varsity. As a substitute end, he showed up well in several league games. In the Santa Ana game he intercepted a forward pass and ran to a touchdown for one of the brilliant plays of the day. Spencer was another steady, consistent player.

GEORGE WILSON. Second year on varsity. "Tiny" as a substitute tackle had beef enough to stop anything and everything that came his way. It was always safe to put "Tiny" in the lineup.

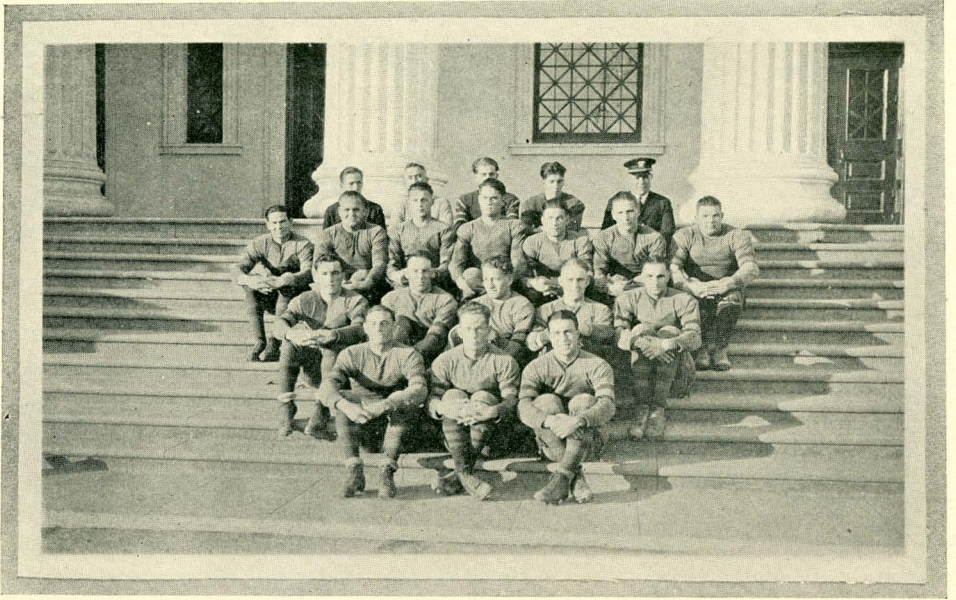

LEE WULFF. First year on varsity. Lee made a name for himself in the Santa Ana game, when he made two touchdowns. He was a good line plunger and often broke away for long gains.

ROBERT RYAN. First year on varsity. "Bob" showed up well as a substitute end and guard. He first gained notice in the Whittier game when he broke through the line several times and downed their men for losses. He also played a good game at guard in the Chaffey game when Francis was injured.

SCOTT KING, Manager. Scott handled the business side, and made the season a financial as well as an athletic success.

The rest of the squad, Dotson, Alderman, Chester, Lichty, Baldwin, Lane, Price and Maxwell, also deserve credit for helping to make the season a success.

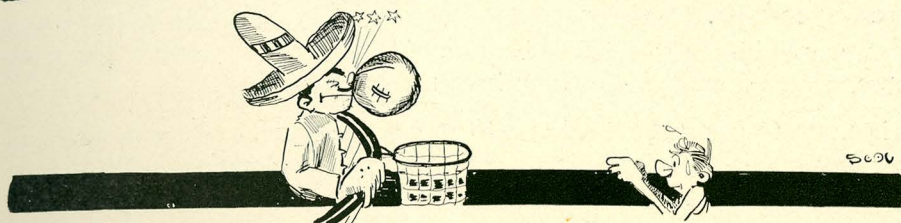

Top Row: Scott King, Coach Peterson, Robert Ryan, Lee Wulff, Coach Durham.

Basket ball was the second championship for the State College. The team went through its league games without a defeat. Chaffey again gave the hardest battle of the season.

Again games with four-year colleges were arranged for the team. San Diego defeated Caletek in the first game and lost to the Southern branch of the University of California in the other. The score of 39-20 does not discredit the State College as S. B. U. C. had the strongest team in the Southern Conference.

Again the second team gave a good account of itself, winning all its games and affording good practice for the varsity.

This year's team was easily better than any other team in the Junior College Conference, showing that San Diego should be in the Southern Conference in a few years.

* * * * *

The members of the varsity were:

ALDEN ROSS, Captain. First year on varsity. Alden was high-point man for the season, and the best center in the league. He was in poor shape because of illness nearly all the season, but even then was the most valuable man on the squad. His experience on high school and Y. M. C. A. teams makes him of varsity calibre for any college team.

ALVIN MORRISON. Second year on varsity. "Babe" was the best standing guard in the league. He and Ross were the stars of the games the college played. Babe was well known to the fans because of his call of "Defense!" The team's defense, centered around Morrison, kept the opposing score down.

MORRIS GROSS, Captain-elect. First year on varsity. Morris was a fast forward with a good eye, especially on shots from the sides of the court. He was the star of the S. B. U. C. game, scoring twelve out of the team's twenty points.

JOHN SQUIRES. First year on varsity. "Jawn" was probably the best running guard in the league, although he did not discover his basket-shooting ability until the last game of the season with Citrus Union. He was good on both offense and defence. He and Babe Morrison formed the best pair of guards the Junior College has had in years.

RICHARD BERRY. First year on varsity. "Dick" at forward was a good teammate for Gross, being a fast man on the floor. He did not do much of the shooting, but his passing ability made him a sure bet for the team.

JAMES McDANIEL. Second year on varsity. "Jim" played at forward and got in most of the games. He showed up well in the victory over Caltek at the start of the season. He had a good eye for the basket but had a little trouble in handling the ball.

BRUCE MAXWELL. Second year on varsity. Bruce had a good eye for the basket and was high-point man in several practice games. He was the lightest man on the squad, but was a fast player, getting in most of the varsity games.

HERBERT JONES. First year on varsity. "Herb" played guard when Babe Morrison or Johnny Squires was out. He proved to be a fast guard for his first year at the game.

TED ALLEN. First year on varsity. Subbed at center and guard. Ted was slow on the floor, but showed material for a good man.

HENRY STEVENSON. First year on varsity. "Hank" subbed at center, and was a good player. He was kept out most of the season by illness.

SAM RUSSO, Manager. "Sam" is well-known to everybody and raised a lot of pep for the games. He managed a successful season.

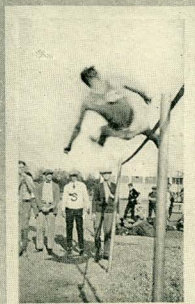

* * * * *

Other members of the squad who did good work for the college are Percy Adams and Ed. Stahlfeld.

Taking another leg on the three-year track trophy, San Diego won the conference track meet by a margin of thirty-three points over Chaffey, again the runner-up.

El Centro Junior College, entering for the first time a team in a conference meet, took third place. Their four man team was a big surprise, winning three events and placing in several others.

Every record was broken except in the quarter-mile and the high hurdles. San Diego made a fine record by placing in every event. Ross was high-point man with ten, and Allen and Van Dorn were second, with eight each. Captain Hancock had an off day, scoring only six points.

* * * * *

The fifteen men who placed in the meet are:

JOHN HANCOCK, Captain. Second year on varsity. Johnny was high-point man last year, but had an off-day this year, taking fourth place in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. He took second place in the broad jump, and fourth place in the javelin. John holds the State College records in the 100-yard dash and the broad jump, having made 10 1-5 seconds and 21 feet 1 inch, respectively.

PAUL VAN DORN, Captain-elect. First year on varsity. Paul took second in the mile and won the half mile by passing four men in the last fifty yards. He set a new record of 2 minutes 9 3-5 seconds in the half mile.

ALDEN ROSS. First year on varsity. Alden was high-point man by taking first in the high jump, second in the 100-yard dash, and second in the 220-yard dash. He made a new record of 5 feet, 9 3-8 inches in the high jump.

TED ALLEN. First year on varsity. He won the discus and took second in the javelin. Ted set up a new mark of 120 feet, 7 inches in the discus.

CHALMERS MACKENZIE. First year on varsity. Chalmers won the pole vault easily, making a new record of 11 feet, 5 1/2 inches. He also sprang a surprise by taking third in the high jump.

PAUL METTS. First year on varsity. He was San Diego's premier miler, winning it with a new record of 4 minutes, 51 3-5 seconds. Paul also took fourth place in the two-mile.

JAY MOREIN. First year on varsity. Jay was penalized at the start of the 440 and failed to break last year's record. He won it in 54 4-5 seconds. Jay also ran the first lap of the relay and placed in the 220-yard dash heats.

ED STAHLFELD. First year on varsity. He ran the high hurdles, taking second place.

BRUCE MAXWELL. Second year on varsity. Bruce ran a fast two-mile, but in the last lap was forced into second place.

HENRY FRANCIS. Second year on varsity. "Hank" took second in the shot-put and ran the last lap in the relay.

SAM RUSSO. Second year on varsity. He took third place in the pole vault.

HAROLD MACARTHUR. First year on varsity. He took third in the two-mile run.

JULIAN POHL. First year on varsity. Julian didn't even rate the trip on the team, but he went up on his own hook and took fourth place in the discus.

TOM HARLAND. Second year on varsity. Tom took second in the mile last year, but this year fell back to fourth place.

LEE WULFF. First year on varsity. Lee started training late in the season, but took a fourth place in the low hurdles.

JAMES MCDANIEL, Manager. "Jim" was another to manage a championship team through a successful season.

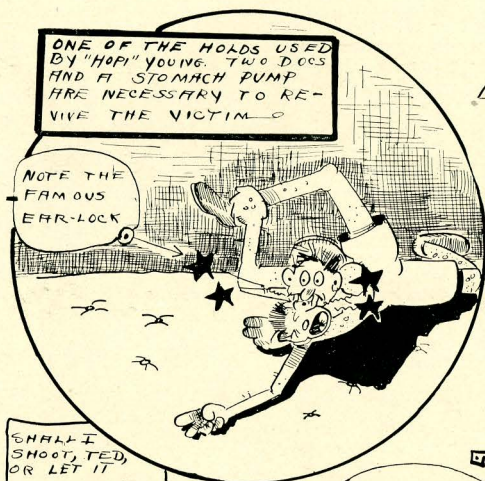

The other men on the squad were: Moxon, Dotson, Miller, Morrison, Leach, Glenn Van Doren, Hardy and Price. Most of them were beaten out for places by small margins.

Standing: Sam Russo, Tom Harland, Lee Wulff, Alden Ross, Red Allen, Julian Pohl, Ed Stahlfield, Henry Francis.

Kneeling: Coach Peterson, George Dotson, Ross Hardy, Ellis Price, Fred Morrison, Paul Van Dorn, Paul Metts, Archie Leach.

Seated: Glenn Van Dorn, Bruce Maxwell, John Hancock, Stanley Miller, Jay Morein.

LOIS MORRIS

1922 State College championship.
championship of Southern California.

Lois Morris, champion in women's tennis at the State College, won the Southern California Intercollegiate women's singles championship at Ojai this spring. Miss Morris received a large silver cup for the victory.

This victory, in competition with women from larger colleges, ranks Miss Morris as one of the leading tennis players in California.

Some of her other victories are:

1919 Girls' championship of Detroit.

1919 Mixed doubles championship of Detroit.

1921 San Diego High school championship.

1922 Women's singles championship at La Jolla.

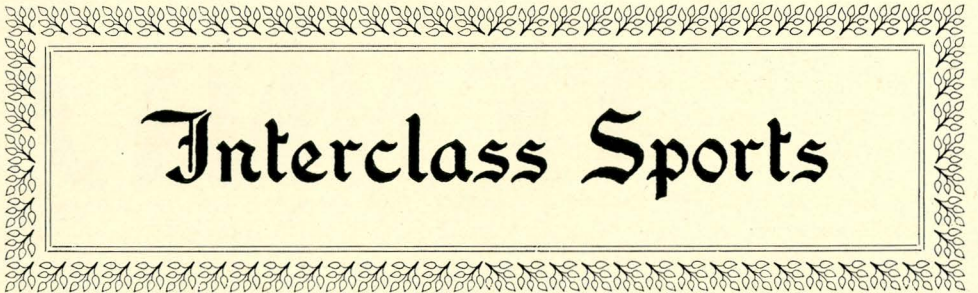

1923 Women's singles intercollegiate

The Tennis team of the State College tied with Chaffey for first place in the Junior College tournament held at Santa Ana on May 12.

Carl Shellbach, first man on the tennis team, won the men's singles.

Fanny Macy was defeated in the women's singles, but she and Marian Hartley won the women's doubles.

Walter Kaulfers and Fanny Macy lost the mixed doubles, and Carl Shellbach and Augustus Mack were defeated in the men's doubles.

Interclass Sports

CROSS-COUNTRY

Cross-country running brought another big cup to the State College, when ten runners placed in the Rowing Club cross-country, winning first place. Paul Metts took second place, winning an individual cup.

The other college runners were: Paul Van Doren, fifth place; Harold MacArthur, seventh place; Archie Leach, ninth place; and Tom Harland, tenth place.

The interclass cross-country was won by the Freshmen, Paul Van Doren and Harold MacArthur, both Freshmen, finishing first and second, respectively. Tom Harland, a Sophomore, took third place.

BASEBALL

Interclass baseball was played at the State College this year for the first time.

The Freshmen won the first game, 11 to 6. The Sophomores came back in the second game, however, and in a ragged contest won, 15 to 11.

In the third and final game, the Sophomores walked away from the Freshmen, winning 25 to 2.

Watch fobs were given the winning team by Klindt's Sporting Goods Store.

SWIMMING

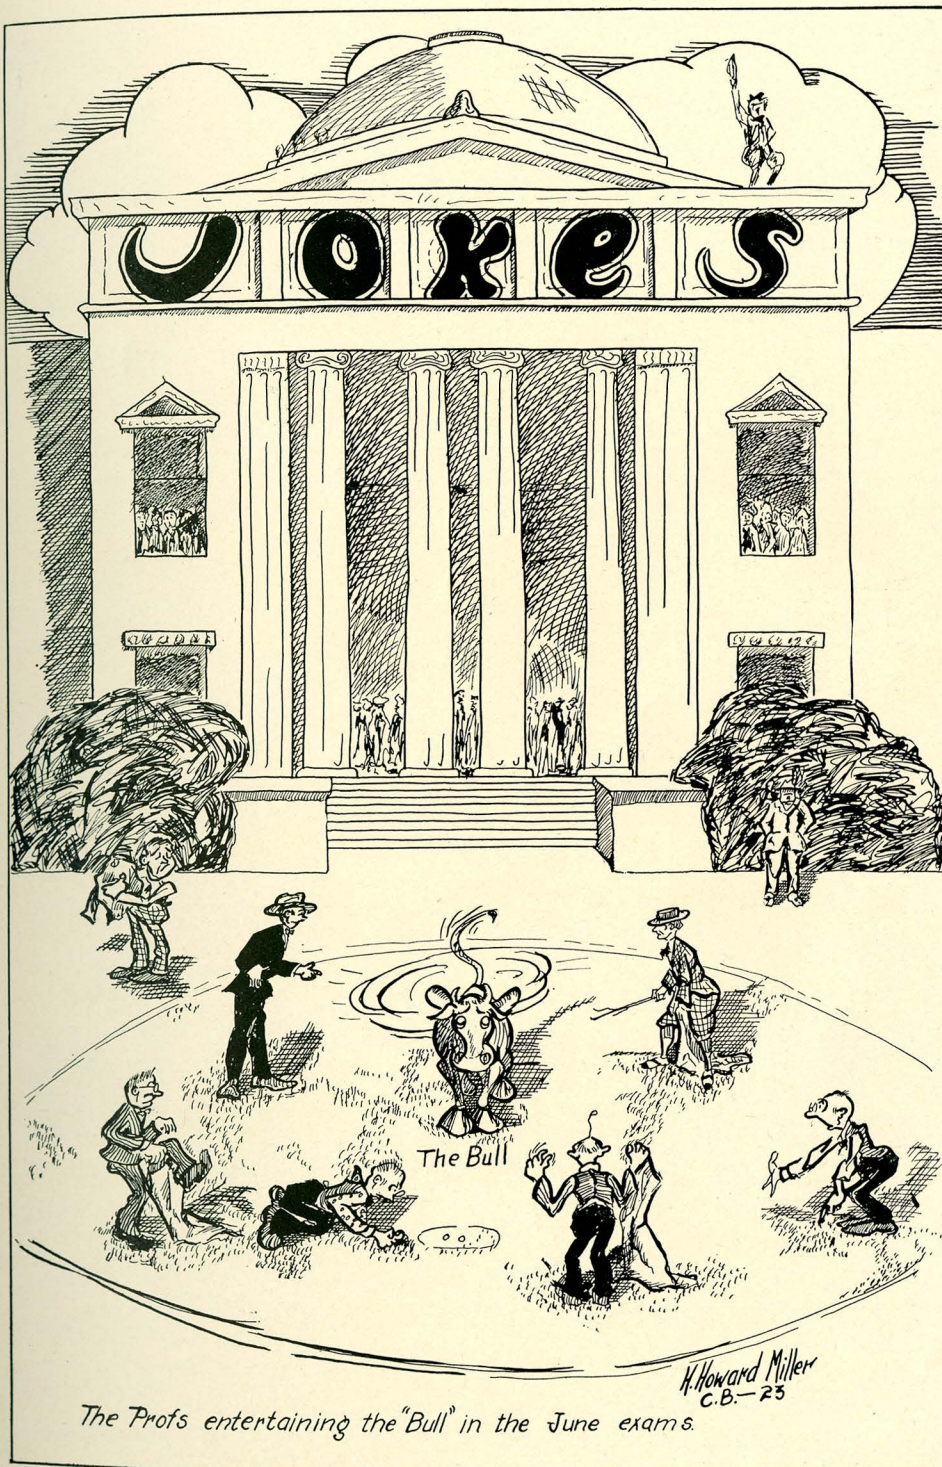

Miss Emily Middlebrook, a student of the State College, but swimming for the Silver Gate Girls' Swimming Club, recently won the Junior National Championship in the 100-yard breast stroke.

Swimming meets are not held in the Junior College Conference, so Miss Middlebrook and other swimmers have not had the opportunity to represent the school in this sport.

BULLETIN

TENNIS

On Saturday, May 26, the tennis team defeated Chaffey 20-5 in the finals for the Southern California Junior College Tennis championship. The San Diego team won every match except the men's doubles. The team was composed of Louis Schelbach, Augustus Mack, Walter Kaulfers, Fanny Macy and Miriam Hartley.

AN ODE(UR) FROM THE CHEM. LAB.

(After the style of Chaucer, Longfellow, Burns and Nero)

An odeur youngish down the hallewaye

Slippeth, creepeth, slowly, softly,
Till each unsuspeket chappie
His unguarded nostril quivers.

Each imperfect molecule of odeur
Doing its own very bestie
To maketh all the groaning chappies
Hold their nostrils with their handies.

Mingled with the H₂S gas
Comes the odeur of the cabbage,
Stronger as garlic, if not stronger,
Footsie smell, loud as the thunder.

Then each chappie with his handie
Claspeth closely to his nostril
Doth forsake the fill-ed hallewaye
Till he reacheth sanctuary.

So each bit of lonesome odeur
Discipateth in the thinness
Of the vacant air of hallewaye,
And the chappies soon returneth.

Oh, darling, do you
For a moment think
That if you were any less fair,
Or your teeth were gone,
And your hair fallen out,
That I would cease to care?
That if you were fat
And not just plump,

And one of your legs were of wood,
That I would cease
To care for you?
You're gosh darned right. I Would!

My roommate
Had to leave town
The other day,
And asked me to keep
His date with
His woman.

I Did.
And now I wish that
My roommate
Would leave town
Oftener. But He Doesn't.

She got on the street car
Just one block after
I did.
She was fair
And comely,
Good to look upon.
A shapely ankle—
You know what I mean.

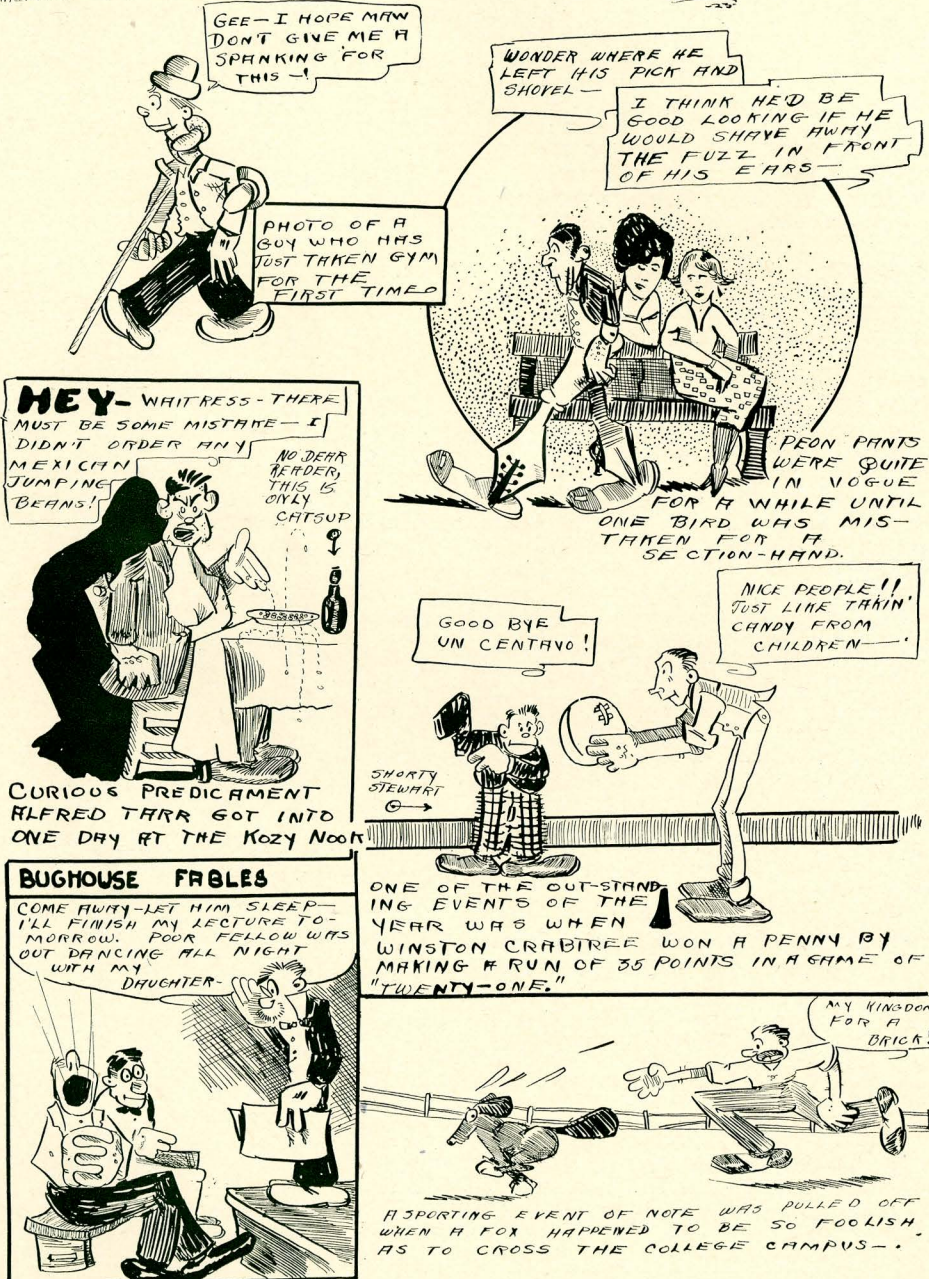

She was easy to speak to,
I could have made her,
I even wanted to,
But—
I didn't.

And why?

Well, she was in Chicago,
and I—
I was here in town.

Reginald De Bris and Harry Legge, popular I Tappa Kegg men, entertained with a delightful cabaret party at the "Joint."

Miss Baer-Bach, well-known member of the Damma Phi Nu sorority, held a box party at the Casino. It seems that all the chairs were taken, so the girls had to bring in boxes.

Mr. Blaa Blaa, noted Chautauqua talker, was entertained by a number of the women of the college with a Dutch treat at Ralph's.

In spite of the great number of frat men at the I Signa Phi Quickly dance a goodly number of gentlemen were present.

The Frosh taffy pull went off as per schedule. The Chaperons showed up on time, so everyone pulled taffy.

Mr. Hugo Chaser has temporarily lost the sight of one eye. While looking for his room in a northern hotel, someone stuck a hat pin in his eye.

Mr. Carl Hacksaw has returned from an extended visit in the upper part of the state. He returned a week ahead of schedule owing to the carelessness of a warden in leaving the gate unlocked.

Mr. Eau De Soupe is recovering from an injured hand received last summer while staying at the Hotel Sappo. Someone stepped on his hand as he was reaching for a cigar.

Mrs. Algernon Van Drizzle lost a fine new motor car, presented to her by her husband last week. The police recognized the car in spite of a changed license number.

Mr. Cokein is passing out the cigars this week. His wife was stricken with a bad case of lockjaw early Monday morning.

Mr. Aiged Aigge is suing his wife for divorce on the charge that she continually sang the latest song hits. This, he asserts, broke his heart.

The worst scandal in De Wood circles came to sight last week when Mr. Cooke was arrested for the murder of Harneise Le Mare, a musician. In an interview Mr. Cooke said that he had nothing against Mr. Le Mare except that he taught his wife to play the accordion.

Loud laughter echoed and re-echoed in the Garden Ice Cream Parlor, where men of all denominations gathered to drown their sorrows in sundaes, sodas and other vile concoctions. A man was cursing loudly and a little golden-haired lassie came in, and with tear-filled eyes, walked over to the loud-mouthed individual.

"Daddy—please come home," she sobbed. "Mother is ill."

"Serve 'er right," growled the man, pushing her away.

"Please—please—" the little girl sobbed again. "Mother's dying."

"Let 'er die." And with a muttered oath he turned his back on her and ordered another nut sundae.

"But, Daddy, there are two men breaking into the cellar."

With a horrible shriek the man leaped across the room and out.

One week-end we went camping.

We took along one of those waterproof folding tents. When we purchased it the man in the store said:

"It's no trouble at all; it will fold up in five minutes."

As might be expected,

We no sooner had gone to sleep the first night Than it started to rain.

When the wind blew

We knew the man in the store had spoken the truth;

It folded up in less than five minutes.

The San Diego Union

A Tribute from the Dean of the State Press to The San Diego
Union, the Pioneer Newspaper of Southern California

"I do not think there is another paper in this country which can, as fairly as The San Diego Union, claim that it has always been the leading factor in promoting the interests of the community in which it is published. The Union 'has been on the job' from the beginning, and the present prosperity of the city is much due to its energetic, consistent and continuous efforts to acquaint the outside world with the advantages of the fine harbor on which it is situated. I am proud that I was once connected with a journal that can make such a boast."

This Tribute to The San Diego Union was paid by the late John P. Young, managing editor of the San Francisco Chronicle for many years.

“Oh, John!”

“What’s the matter?”

“I just happened to think; do you realize that was Mrs. De Puyster we just hit?”

“That’s all right. I warned her this morning that we’d probably run across her this afternoon.”

She: “I think you’re perfectly horrid. You act positively intoxicated.”

He: “It isn’t that, m’ dear, but I wuz jush tryin’ to think what did the one horse shay.”

“Your Honor,” said the burglar, “I was food-less, friendless and homeless.”

“My man,” said the judge, “you move me deeply! Food, shelter and companionship shall be yours for the next nine months.”

Golfer: “Hear you’ve just been married, old chap. Congratulations on the happiest day of your life!”

Another Golfer: “You forget. I once holed out in one!”

HEARTBURN
The Great American Novel

CHAPTER XXXXXI

Our Hero had been invited to the Siamese Ambassador's ball. When he left the office the chief said, "Now, don't let anyone get away with any silverware."

The decorations were unsurpassable. They cluttered up the whole front steps. They were being carried out in seaweed and eucalyptus vines. Armfuls and armfuls were being carried out.

Ah! But could he find her there? That was the question. Then a thought struck him. And there they found him where he had fallen.

Walking out under the sky a great piece fell upon him. Some fell in the garden with a thump. He was feeling poetic. He must write! But what? And then the inspiration came.

The waving leaflets
On the treelets
Bend and bow at the breezelets.
Wifted and wafted
By the breezelets,
The wavelets sauntered in.
Amid splendid Fraunhofer lines
The sun sank,
Sinking sunkenly.
A laugh rose up
And ran up the hill,
The smiling pie-plants
Milked the milk-weed
In pastoral bliss.
Achum, Ahem, Zimbo.

Indeed, he had achieved a masterpiece. It sounded good to have been written by him. The spirit of Longfellow must have sneezed in his ear.

Frank Pomeranz: "How's my little boy Tiny today?"
"Tiny" Tarr: "Still able to be around."

* * * *

Mr. Iddings (after lecture on colloids): "Give me an example of a gas suspended in a solid."
Earl Andreen: "Cheese."

The family were watching Baby playing on the floor. Brother had just given Baby a hammer to play with and everyone was watching expectantly.

Suddenly Baby picked up the hammer and struck his thumb.

"Oh, Hell!" he cried.

And the family all joined in the laugh at Baby's latest cute antic.

IF THE HAT SALESMAN TOLD THE TRUTH

"You're a show, sir. That hat makes you look like a prize jackass. Will you have it done up or will you create a laugh right now? Step a little closer to the mirror. You're a scream. I could die laughing. That hat makes you look ten years younger and foolisher.

"I hardly know whether I should charge you or not. I pay five dollars to see Frank Tinney and never miss it. I never thought a black derby could make a man look so funny.

"A nice, jaunty hat like that just fits your sour expression. The effect is distinctly burlesque. Wait till I call the others.

"Wait till you get out. I feel like trailing you to see the fun. I hope the schools are letting out just now. Do you see what I see?

"Can you beat it for fourteen dollars? That hat would do credit to the Middle Ages. You could never sell a woman such a relic. She'd set fire to your shop.

"Wear it a little more on the side so the people will know what a damphool you are. There—now you've got it!

"Here's a hat you will never outwear. You will lose your nerve the first day and send it to the Near East Relief.

"It isn't the fault of the hats, it's your mug. You'd look funny in a crown. Better wear the old hat again. It won't attract attention."

—(Scissored).

"John, wake up! There are burglars in the pantry stealing the pies I made today!"

Voice from the deep: "Let 'em have the pies just as long as they don't die in the house."

At a local movie show one of the actors was a chimpanzee.

First Woman: "Ooh! Look at the bamboo."

Second Woman: "That ain't no bamboo, that's a boomerang."

* * * *

Teacher: "What is a pretzel?"

Johnnie: "A pretzel is a doughnut gone wrong."

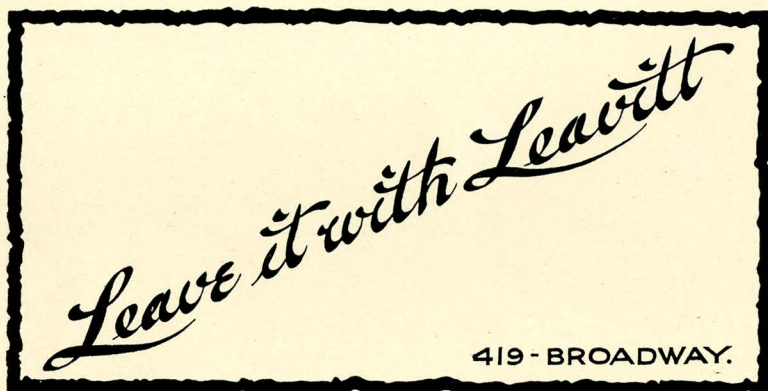

* * * *

College Stude: "I say, Pater, when people go to Heaven, do they become angels right away or do they have to pass a lot of stupid examinations first?"

* * * *

Stout Lady: "Young man, can I get into the part through that gate?"

"Guess so, lady, I just saw a load of hay go through."
