ABLE

The year 1957-58 will probably be remembered on this campus as the year in which new building programs gave promise for doubling the physical facilities to take care of the ever-increasing numbers of students in future years. The year also will be remembered as one in which the nation developed a consciousness of the need for a serious approach to education in order that the welfare of our country might be assured. Several factors contributed to this new consciousness, but it did bring a recognition of the need for not only scientific and engineering education, but also for a thorough grounding in the liberal arts.

This yearbook will carry many indications of the progress made at San Diego State, and the promises of fulfillment will be realized in the lives of our graduates.

Dr. Charles W. Lamden

One of the best business administration programs in the nation is offered by San Diego State's Division of Business Administration. "There are many reasons for this," says Dr. Charles W. Lamden, division chairman, "but the main factor is the necessity of a sound program here to meet the growth of business and industry in San Diego."

Following majors in business administration, students specialize in accounting, banking and finance, insurance, marketing, business education, and in the fields of credit, business, industrial, personnel, office, and secretarial management. The business administration program gives the student the tools for success in today's expanding business world.

DIVISION OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

With the free world racing the communist world for a claim-stake in space, the role of the United States Air Force is of major importance. The Air Force ROTC program at San Diego State prepares young men for a second lieutenant's bars in the USAF while they are completing their college education.

"The program enables college students to complete their education while meeting the qualifications for Air Force officer training," says Col. Lloyd A. Walker, USAF, chairman of the Division of Air Science. First unit in the nation to be assigned its own airplane, the detachment has an orientation in flying program now underway. The plane, an L-17 Ryan Navion, is operated from Gillespie Field.

DIVISION OF AIR SCIENCE

Col. Lloyd A. Walker

George N. Sorenson

Creativity is a characteristic of fine arts.

"The things that our program teaches us are the things that one lives for," says Mr. George N. Sorenson, chairman of the Division of the Fine Arts.

Art students work in the crafts, such as sculpture, and in the graphic arts, such as portraiture. In home economics, students learn to maintain a happy home through wise income use, child care, and selection of food and clothing.

Music students give joint and solo recitals, prepare famous-name recorded recitals and give concerts of original works. Speech arts students concentrate in the fields of public speaking, acting, speech correction, theater design, radio and television broadcasting, and television design.

DIVISION OF THE FINE ARTS

DIVISION OF THE LIFE SCIENCES

Dr. Robert D. Harwood

Within the last 50 years science has made great strides in bettering man's lot in life. Receiving the proper knowledge and background to make further contributions to the welfare of man are the students in the Division of the Life Sciences.

Dr. Robert D. Harwood is the division chairman. The addition this year of an MS degree in applied biology greatly increased the scope of the division's work, which includes the fields of bacteriology, botany, psychology, zoology, and nursing.

New equipment includes a bathythermograph, an instrument for recording water temperatures, an oscillograph, a muscular dystrophy research instrument, and a Warburg, a cancer research instrument developed by Nobel Prize Winner Otto Warburg.

DIVISION OF THE HUMANITIES

Study of the humanities places a student in the position of a seeker, a position where the liberal arts fields of history, philosophy, English, and foreign languages are opened to him.

The facilities here with which a student may continue to seek were greatly increased this year when the Division of Humanities moved into the new $2 million Humanities-Social Sciences building.

"Our division has undergone quite a big development," says Dr. John R. Adams, chairman of the division.

New, well-equipped laboratory facilities have been installed, one for foreign languages and another for English reading and comprehension.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

Dr. Manfred H. Schrupp

Although in California only two-thirds of all education graduates enter active teaching, here at San Diego State 80 per cent of the education graduates take up teaching careers.

"Still, the state is not meeting half of the teacher demand," says Dr. Manfred H. Schrupp, dean of education and chairman of the Division of Education. "The state needs about 16,000 new teachers per year."

Even though the division moved into a new building last year, it has already outgrown it and a three-story Education building is in the planning stage.

This year closed-circuit television experiments were conducted as part of the teacher training program in the Campus Laboratory School, a training ground for future elementary school teachers, where 200 pupils are enrolled.

DIVISION OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

The second division which moved this year to the new $2 million Humanities-Social Sciences building is the Division of the Social Sciences.

"This development has finally permitted us to carry out some of the things we have always wanted to do, but haven't been able to because of the lack of space and facilities," says Dr. David S. Milne, division chairman.

Some of the new facilities are laboratory additions for cartography, anthropology, and photography, plus a city room for journalism, a public administration center for graduate work in government service, and a sociology lab for work in community surveys and population trends. By next fall, extensive meteorological equipment will be installed.

The college's fastest-growing division is the Division of Physical Sciences.

Future building plans include a five-story Chemistry-Geology building tagged at $4 million.

On the much discussed possibility of receiving a nuclear reactor, Dr. Dudley H. Robinson, division chairman says, "With a national shortage of nuclear-trained people, particularly in this area, the equipment is vitally needed."

Students built much of the year's new equipment including an analogue computer in physics, graphic arts equipment in industrial arts, and a metallurgy lab in engineering.

A special night class in astronautics was conducted by Krafft Ehricke, one of the world's leading authorities on space travel.

DIVISION OF THE PHYSICAL SCIENCES

Dr. Dudley H. Robinson

If enrollment at San Diego State is to increase as much as has been authoritatively predicted, the necessity for building the proposed new men's gymnasium and swimming pool is undoubtedly one of the greatest needs of our campus. So says Dr. William L. Terry, chairman of the Division of Physical Education, Health Education, and Recreation and head of the Athletic Board. "If there is a marked increase in enrollment, we will soon lack the facilities and the space to accommodate all the Physical Education classes," he says.

The gym and pool are among the 1959-1960 building plans.

Most majors in Physical Education and Health Education work toward teaching credentials, while Recreation majors learn activity leadership for youth groups.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

DICK MANNING — This year's AS president, Dick Manning, proved to be a willing and able worker. Prior to taking over his presidential duties this year, Dick was Junior Class representative and served on several student-faculty committees.

ASSOCIATED STUDENT OFFICERS

CAROL COTTON — AS secretary, Carol Cotton, was the only SDSC junior to be named to Who's Who. She has also held the positions of Lower Division representative and AS Constitutions Chairman.

NANCY KIRKHUFF — One of the most active students on campus was Nancy Kirkhuff, AS commissioner of finance. She has also been secretary of the Finance committee and co-chairman of Awards Day.

BILL NUGENT — AS vice presidential duties for this year had an able director in Bill Nugent. Besides carrying out his regular duties, he was the AS Council's representative on the Scripps Board.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS COUNCIL

The Associated Students Council, headed by President Dick Manning, experienced an exceptionally successful, if worrisome, year. The Council conducted the first Campus Leadership Conference, worked out an improved Publicity Code, expanded the budget, and established better relations between the Council and the Aztec, and promoted the biggest "Presidents' Dinner" in campus history, with the presidents of more than ninety campus organizations attending. Trouble came in a squabble over election procedures when Graduate Rep Stan Stewart discovered that half of the Council had been accompanied into office by an error in the Articles of Incorporation, a situation which was eventually corrected. The situation led to a tussle with Aztec Editor Sandy Keyes over what, how much, and in what manner the Council news should be presented in the school prints. Things cooled down during the second semester and life with the AS Council was serene and routine once again.

BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS

The Board of Publications was probably one of the most talked about committees on the campus this year. During the first semester there was some controversy over censorship and freedom of the press, involving both the campus newspaper and the AS Council. The committee again stepped into the public light in the second semester by approving publication of the new campus humor magazine, "The Menagerie." In addition, the committee also was the publisher of the other campus publications. Edward Blessing was the recorder and Dr. Donald Walker and Dr. Robert Gray were chairmen.

LECTURE AND ASSEMBLIES COMMITTEE

The Lectures and Assemblies Committee was instrumental in providing some top-notch entertainment on the campus this year. They scheduled the weekly movies that so many students enjoyed, brought to San Diego such outstanding musical programs as the Gateway Singers and the Don Cossack Choir and Dancers, were responsible for getting such noted speakers as Vincent Price and Ogden Nash, and were in charge of arranging most of the other delightful entertainment that was presented during the year. The committee deserves a big vote of thanks for a job well done!

VETERANS' HOUSING COMMITTEE

The Veterans' Housing Committee decides on policy and procedure affecting the functioning of the two San Diego State veterans' housing units, Aztec Villa and Aztec Terrace. The committee considers any complaints, petitions, or problems presented by the housing occupants, and also rules on veterans eligible to live in the housing units. The chairman was Dr. Herbert Peiffer.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance Committee has the important job of disbursing the Associated Student funds and making financial recommendations to the Associated Student Council. The committee plans the budget for the various departmental and organizational activities, and arranges any additional disbursements for special activities that may come up during the year. The chairman of the committee was Nancy Kirkhuff, commissioner of finance.

ATHLETICS COMMITTEE

The Athletics Committee plays a large part in keeping the sports program rolling along smoothly. The committee sets the general athletic policy, budgets for the athletic program, determines scheduling policies, establishes major and minor sports, and approves athletic awards that are recommended by the Director of Athletics. The chairman of the committee this year was Ed Blessing.

ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The Activities Committee has the responsibility of seeing that every school activity is listed on the official college calendar. Another important job is to see that there are no conflicting dates or places scheduled for the activities. This committee is also responsible for publishing the Aztec Master Activity Calendar, which is given to all students during registration each semester. The committee chairman this year was Bill Nugent.

FRESHMAN CLASS

RON CREIGH
President

Les Brown and his Band of Renown, winding up in December an 18,000-mile, 30-show Far Eastern Christmas Tour with comedian Bob Hope, came to San Diego and drew 2100 persons to the Freshman Class-sponsored fall semester Blue Book Ball held January 30 at the Mission Beach Ballroom. Class President Ron Creigh said that estimated profits would exceed $550.

Lynne Luckey sponsored by Lambda Chi Alpha, was crowned Belle of the Ball by Creigh, after he had first faked losing the winning name card in his pockets, and then dropping it while seventeen breathless candidates stood waiting.

Freshman cabinet members included Vice-President Eddie Hartman, Secretary Diane Dodgion, Treasurer Denver Fox, and Committee Chairmen Doris Johnson, Bob Clark, Kris Kullberg, Lois Fishburn, Kay Garner, Lynne Luckey, and Don Krosh. Pat Farrar was Lower Division Representative.

During the second semester, the Freshman Class worked through the Spirit and Traditions Board and Dean Herbert C. Peiffer to initiate "Freshman Hazing" for next fall, a tradition-building time when freshmen will wear green dinks and large name placards until whipping the sophomores in a mud-pit tug-a-war.

CHARLOTTE BALSIGER
President

Under the guise of the Class of 1960, the Sophomore Class this year presented "Jazz Under the Stars," a jazz concert success in planning and program, but a venture that dipped deeply into the $900 treasury left from a big Blue Book of the year before. The concert brought Andre Previn, Shorty Rogers, Bud Shank, Claude Williamson, Pat Healy and other American jazz luminaries to the Open-Air Theater in Sputnik-filled mid-October. Dickie Thomas, SDS graduate manager, said it was one of the best promotional musical events in recent years.

Class President Char Balsiger led a class cabinet of Vice-President Mary Lou Nicholas, Secretary Kathi Reiser, Treasurer Sharon Petersen, Publicity Chairman Bob Battenfield, Activities Ron Doctor, Constitution Marla Brown, and Freshman Class Adviser Yvonne Burman. Gene Emery, freshman class president last year, was the concert's general chairman. Under Balsiger, the sophs worked with the freshmen in preparation for "Freshman Hazing" next year, and pushed the refreshments for the AMS Follies in April. Other ideas, such as "Paint the School Red Day" and "Friday Heidelberg Day," were abandoned in favor of private activities.

JUNIOR CLASS

DAVE DeVOL
President

It seems that Dave DeVol is annually elected president of the Class of 1959. This year, as the class passed through a phase of being juniors, was no exception. Backing DeVol was a class officer lineup consisting of Jack Brennan, vice-president; Beverly Snow, secretary; and Tom Golich, treasurer. Gail Farrar was in charge of the general activities of the year.

The Junior Class took their turn at sponsoring the big spring semester Blue Book Ball, held June 12 at the Mission Beach Ballroom. Committee chairmen for the Ball were Jerri Hafter, queens and intermission; Bill Cooper, band and ballroom; Ed Chambeau, decorations; Marilyn Peters, bids and invitations; Laurel Higgins, on-campus publicity, and Arlene Daly, off-campus publicity.

An evergreen tree was presented to the college by the juniors for use as a Christmas card tree. In years past, the AS Council has purchased a tree each year for this use. The tree was planted on the lawn west of Scripps Cottage. A publicity-stunt, mid-semester, let-off-some-steam session was also conducted by the class on the Friday before Easter in the form of a sledgehammer-swat time on an old junked car which had been towed to the Quad.

JAZZ CONCERT

Pat Healy, the concert's feminine interest, vocalizes.

The Andre Previn Trio renders progressively "The Birth of the Blues."

"Jazz Under the Stars," the biggest jazz concert ever to be presented on the SDS campus, brought pianist Andre Previn and Trumpeter Shorty Rogers to the Greek Bowl in mid-October. Also on the bill with Previn and Rogers, who have combined their talents for numerous shows and albums, were flutist-saxophonist Bud Shank, the Claude Williamson Trio, and vocalist Pat Healy. Sponsored by the Class of 1960—i.e., by the Freshman Class Cabinet who had become sophomore students—the concert was a success by measure of enjoyment but the Class suffered a setback in finances, taking a $200 loss. What with a $900 profit on their Blue Book Ball the year before, though, the Class of 1960 was still further ahead than most sophomore classes. Previn played happily on a borrowed Baldwin baby grand which he had belatedly demanded, and Rogers capped the evening nicely with such originals as "Popo" and "Martians Go Home."

Shank and his sax were especially pleasing to the concert crowd.

ASSOCIATED MEN STUDENTS

The most popular event presented this year by the Associated Men Students was the AMS Follies.

This and the many other events of AMS were under the able direction of Jerry Fisher, president; Dave Leaverton, vice-president; John Bryce, secretary; and Gary Cantor, treasurer.

First semester activities were two after-game dances and the ever-popular Barbershop Quartet Contest.

Second semester activities included the Men's Fashion Show, the AMS-AWS dance, Awards Day, the AMS banquet, and the Follies. Also, each week, an outstanding man student was chosen Man of the Week for his campus contributions.

Membership of AMS includes every man student at SDSC.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

BARBARA ELLIOTT
President

Associated Women Students was headed in their many activities this year by Barbara Elliott, president; Marilyn Stead, vice-president; Barbara Allen, Secretary; and Bobbi Patrick, treasurer.

First semester activities included the Big and Little Sister party, a fall banquet, and a Christmas tree trimming party. The biggest event second semester was the annual Spring Sing, which had more group participation than any other activity on campus. Other activities were a spring banquet, the AWS-AMS dance, and support of the World University Services drive.

AWS is one of the largest organizations on the campus, as every woman student is automatically a member.

Adviser

Oceotl is an honorary service organization to boost the college spirit and to further the interests of San Diego State. The main activities of the group include the annual painting and lighting of the "S" on Black Mountain, assisting with card tricks during football games, ushering at various programs, selling rooter caps, and building the float which represents the college in the Christmas Toyland Parade. Gary Letson was the president this year. The other officers were Paul West, vice-president; Wally Dill, secretary; and Ron Feiler, treasurer. Dickie Thomas is the adviser of the group.

Xolotl was organized in 1942 to serve as a counseling and advising organization for incoming freshmen. This year the group sponsored a campus orientation day, with special programs and guided tours for all students attending San Diego State for the first time. A student must complete at least fifteen units and have the recommendation of the department chairman in his major field to be eligible for membership. The officers for this year were Jerry Schultz, president; Barbara Goen, vice-president; Nancy Kirkhuff, secretary; and Stan Skinner, treasurer.

FALL ELECTIONS

Twenty-five student government positions — nine Associated Students Council posts and 16 class offices — were filled in the fall elections Oct. 30. Barbara Elliot, AS commissioner of elections, was in charge.

Applications were light, with about 40 candidates running, as opposed to the spring elections where almost 60 students applied.

Elected to the AS positions were Nancy Kirkhuff, commissioner of finance; representatives Phil Kaplan and Al Weymiller, upper division; Bob Clark, lower division; Wally Musser, graduate; Pat Farrar, freshman class; Ron Svalstad, sophomore class; Jack Walsh, junior class; and Jack Binns, senior class.

Elected as senior class officers were Vince Vint, president; Eric Smith, vice-president; Elaine Lindrus, secretary; and Don Spear, treasurer. Junior class officers were Dave DeVol, president; Jack Brennan, vice president; Bev Snow, secretary; and Tom Golich, treasurer.

Charlotte Balsiger was voted president of the sophomore class with Mary Lou Nicholas, vice president; Kathi Rieser, secretary; and Sharon Petersen, treasurer. Freshman class officers were Ron Creigh, president; Ed Hartman, vice president; Diane Dodgion, secretary; and Denver Fox, treasurer.

Norman Rost - Director

San Diego State's Marching Band, famed for its precision and originality of presentation, was active last fall during Homecoming and football season, performing during the half-time proceedings of each home game.

The first game in which the band participated was the SDS-San Francisco game, where the band followed a theme of historical sights of San Francisco.

The band, under the direction of Norman Rost, travelled to Los Angeles in early October and presented the half-time show for the Los Angeles Rams-Detroit Lions game in the Los Angeles Coliseum. Highlights of San Diego's Fiesta del Pacifico and scenes from the California Story were depicted by the band. The show was seen on national TV.

The band also appeared at the MCRD and Arizona State games and at Band Nite, when ten county high school bands filled the Aztec Bowl in a tribute to the armed services.

The Aztec Marching Band participated in the annual Mother Goose Parade.

The Musical Comedy Guild gave as its second annual presentation Jerome Kern's Broadway hit, "Roberta." The show ran Feb. 7, 8, 14, and 15 in the Hoover High auditorium. Ole Kittleson was director of the show with Ron McConneha, musical director, Francis Mettlach, choreography director. Bill Campbell was scenic designer.

Principal roles were taken by Dan Dierdorff, Relene Keller, Jeannine Fetterolf, Todd Van Every, Shirley Blackwell, Gary Riggs, Barbara Hall, Louis Repaci, Martha Cook, and Dave Boucher.

The Musical Comedy Guild grew out of the 1956 Sophomore Class musical, "Best Foot Forward." It was officially organized in January of last year for the presentation of "On the Town."

The haughty Mrs. Teal and her shrewish daughter, Sophie, as played by Barbara Hall and Martha Cook

Sophie draws the attention of Louis Repaci, as Billy the business manager; Dan Dierdorff, as John Kent, football hero turned sophisticate; and Todd Van Every, as carefree Huck Haines.

San Diego State's debate squad continued on its winning way this year, not only bringing home many trophies for the school, but also helping the college to win national attention. The team won sweepstakes awards at the Regional Pi Kappa Delta Tournament at Tempe, Arizona and at the Los Angeles Tournament of Peers, plus gathering many other individual awards at speech contests in California and neighboring states. This also marked the seventh straight year that San Diego State had a representative debate team at the National West Point Championship Debate Tournament, a record matched by no other college in the United States.

Fred Fox checks notes.

The West Point debaters, Fred Fox and Korky Ellis, won four of eight debates, which ranked them among the top twenty teams in the nation. In a college debate tournament, the debaters are required to debate both the affirmative and negative sides. The national intercollegiate debate question this year was "Resolved: That the practice of requiring union membership as a condition of employment be made illegal."

Korky Ellis emphasizes a point.

Juniors and Seniors who have had experience in college speech contests form the senior division debate squad. The team brought home many awards and trophies throughout the year, even though most of the speakers had competed previously only in lower division debate. Dr. John Ackley, one of the outstanding debate coaches in the nation, was the faculty director of the highly successful senior squad.

The lower division debate squad is composed of freshmen, sophomores, and students who are competing in college tournaments for the first time. This year San Diego State had one of the largest and most successful lower division squads in its history. The squad was coached by Dr. Robert Benjamin and Dr. Jack Mills, who also accompanied the debaters to speech tournaments in California and Arizona.

This year's drama season opened in mid-October with an Aztec Theater Guild production of "Ring Around the Moon," a sophisticated French comedy written by Jean Anouilh and adapted for the American stage by Christopher Fry. Sophomore Dave Newton played a double role as a pair of brothers.

The second play of the season was "Amahl and the Night Visitors," a Christmas opera by Gian Carlo Menotti. The presentation was part of the San Diego Symphony Children's Concert Series. The roles of Amahl were played by Lee Rausch, Peter Mosse and Kenneth McMillan, chosen from 50 fifth, sixth and seventh graders from county schools.

"The Father," a three-act drama by August Strindberg, starred Edward Seamon and Kay DeWall in early February. The Aztec Theater Guild came back in late February with Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing," which starred Bonnie Gould and Dale Muchmore.

Starting the year with the advantage of new city room facilities and twice-a-week issues, the fall semester Aztec staff, with senior journalism major Sandy Keyes as editor, put together a bit of a good year.

"We endeavored to turn a house-organ into a newspaper," says Miss Keyes. Throughout the semester the Aztec worked for a free voice, and as a result was quite vocal on such editorial matters as the school turning into an educational mill, the Athletic Department's hesitancy to form policy on competing with the University of San Diego, and the constitutional irregularities uncovered by Graduate Rep Stan Stewart which the Aztec headlined as making half of the AS council void.

Also included in the Aztec's coverage were the doings of one Dr. Benham N. Ingersoll, an extraordinary professor who gathered upwards of 500 students at a sitting to his informal "seances" in the Quad, with the subjects ranging from "Sex and Stud Poker" to reincarnation.

A blast at Folio, the campus literary mag, capped the semester, the Aztec labeling it as indecent and increasing the magazine's sales as a result.

Utilizing experimentation and imagination, the spring semester Aztec had Mike Sullivan, junior journalism major, as editor and an unusually large functioning staff of 34 beehiving through the cityroom.

The experimentation and imagination was exhibited in Sullivan's use of a new tabloid front page — one that stressed pictures and headlines with but a trace of copy — and a generally bold, sparkling appearance to the entire paper.

It was a good semester with the Aztec establishing a closer relationship between student government and student publications. Campus problems receiving editorial comment included the allocation of the athletic budget, the lowering of Del Sudoeste costs, and the revitalizing of school spirit.

The Aztec also pushed for the addition of courses in Russian language to be taught here. At all times, says Sullivan, the spring Aztec asked students and faculty members for their point of view, rather than stating merely an editor's thoughts on a subject.

DEL SUDOESTE

Putting out a college yearbook is a tremendous undertaking. It is estimated that the production of this yearbook cost about 10,000 man-hours of work by the staff — photographers, writers, organizers and indexers. Adding to these 10,000 hours the time spent by people not directly connected to the staff — the many who arranged and posed and moved into focus for the many pictures, supplied identification and generally aided — the total man hours involved would be almost doubled.

For the senior and fraternity-sorority sections, approximately 4500 negatives were taken by Cecil Hamilton. More than 1500 glossy prints are used in these sections. These 1500 pictures, allowing for duplications, represent more than 1100 students.

Adding to this total the organizational and activity shots, which required another 4500 negatives, the total of individual students portrayed in the book reaches more than 4000, and the number of pictures taken to more than 9000.

Then after selecting and sorting the pictures, alphabetizing, checking, and indexing the names and faces therein, and spreading them properly through the book's 256 pages, the job is just about completed, except for writing copy and reading proof so as to fill the edges with reading matter and run the right caption line. Still prior to this though, was the designing and accomplishing of the art work and the selection of the type faces and cover material.

There was day, night, and week-end work — and the staff of the 1958 Del Sudoeste is proud of the yearbook which it has produced.

AZTEC ENGINEER

The Aztec Engineer, an engineering magazine published jointly by SDS physical science and journalism students, is supplied to local business and industrial leaders to keep them informed of what students at San Diego State are doing in the fields of engineering, physics, mathematics, and chemistry.

As such, the Aztec Engineer is primarily a public relations vehicle for the school and aids SDS graduates in obtaining jobs. It has a circulation of more than 2,000. Highlights of the spring edition was an interview article by Krafft Ehrlicke, famed authority at Convair - Astronautics on missiles and satellites. Richard Caswell was editor-in-chief, while Mike Thompson and J. A. King were associate and managing editor, respectively.

FOLIO MAGAZINE

Folio, San Diego State's literary magazine, put out two editions this year, the fall issue selling more than 700 copies and the spring issue, in a combined effort with Menagerie, a new humor mag, doing even better.

The spring issue, the best of the four so far published, aimed at establishing broader student interest by blending serious literary and art work with photos, cartoons and lighter writings on humor, satire and entertainment.

Spring editors were Lee Pratt and Paul Haas from Menagerie, and Dudley A'Neals, with sub-editors Dean McLees and Larry Brittain from Folio. In the fall, Folio Editors were Micheal Tuve and Steve Martin. Dr. Glenn Sandstrom was faculty adviser.

The Panhellenic Council is composed of delegates from the eleven national sororities on campus. Headed by President Betty Towner and Dean Margery Warmer, adviser, the council governed rushing procedures to best demonstrate to women students the advantages of sorority life.

With the cooperation of the Interfraternity council, such special projects as the Panhellenic Open-House, Workshop, and Spring Sing were possible.

This year saw the origination of a Junior Panhellenic, which was similar in structure to the senior council. Delegates from each sorority were pledges and their main interest was in planning for a better sorority system in the future. Also initiated this past Fall was the use of an IBM card system to facilitate the processing of rushees during "Rush Week."

INTER - FRATERNITY COUNCIL

CHRIS QUARTLY
President

ALAN MISHNE
Adviser

The progress of the fraternity system on this campus has been the product of the unifying abilities of the Interfraternity Council. Headed by President Chris Quartly and Adviser Alan Mishne, the Council sponsored a two-man football contest in which students of all the pre-college schools were allowed to enter; the Fraternity All-Stars vs. Frosh Basketball game for athletic scholarships, the traditional Pledge Chariot Races and an Interfraternity Sports program with eight different competitive events. The Council affiliated with the National Interfraternity Council this year, and was represented by three delegates at the N.I.C. Conference in Colorado. Awards were also presented to the fraternities for outstanding scholarship which was determined by the services of I.F.C.

Rushes were aided both semesters by an I.F.C. rushing brochure, informational film and an orientation by leading fraternity men. Bidding was also an important activity and perhaps the initiation of over four hundred men into the fraternity system was the greatest single achievement of the year.

SIGMA CHI

Sigma Chi was founded in 1855 at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Phi Lambda Xi, a local since 1928, was chartered in 1949 as Delta Xi Chapter. The national fraternity, the oldest on campus, has 148 chapters. Delta Xi received, for the fourth time, the Balfour Province Award for outstanding chapter of Sigma Chi.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Sigma Chi's captured first place in interfraternity athletics and added another chariot race to their victories in the fall.

Highlight of the Fall semester was the annual Sweetheart Ball, where Aldine Harvey was chosen as the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. Other events included a Christmas party with the Alpha Phi's, a mountain party at Big Oak Ranch and the popular open-bid TC, sometimes referred to as the Tropical Cruise.

Prominent Sig's on campus included Dick Manning, AS president; Ron Svalstad and Fred Fox, student council representatives; Jack Binns, senior representative; Vince Vint, senior president; Ron Harrington, member of Blue Key; Monte Dickinson, treasurer of IFC; Dallas Evans, winner of the award for most valuable lineman of the Homecoming game; Gerry Mulder and Bernie Finlay, key figures in the Aztec basketball squad; Bill and Bob Gallaher, Bill Jennings, Ron Harrington and Dallas Evans, lettermen in track.

ZETA BETA TAU

Zeta Beta Tau was founded in 1898 at the City College in New York. Beta Tau Colony, a local here in 1949, was chartered as Beta Lambda Chapter in 1951. The national fraternity has 46 chapters.

Once again the ZBT's set the pace in scholarship by winning the Interfraternity Council first-place trophy for All-House Grade Average. Their pledges also won top honors in competition with the other fourteen pledge classes.

The year's social program included the annual barbecue beach party, the initiation dinner-dance at the El Cortez, and a Halloween Dance. Their house was opened to alums at the Old Timer's Dance.

Prominent ZBT's on campus were Ron Feiller, leader of the Pep Band and Ocoatl member; Gary Cantor, AMS treasurer; and Ron Doctor, chairman of the Rally Committee; Bob Tuchin, president of Hillel; Steve Gordon and Jay Goldberg, the AMS council.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Lambda Chi Alpha was founded in 1909 at Boston University. The campus was colonized in 1947 and the local was chartered as Zeta Pi Chapter in 1948. The national fraternity has more chapters than any other college social fraternity, with representation on 152 campuses.

At the Fall Blue Book Ball, the fraternity's candidate Lynne Luckey of Pi Beta Phi, was voted Belle of the Ball. In Homecoming, their float in the mixed division with Gamma Phi Beta, "Bridge to the Sun," captured honors for best use of artificial flowers and best theme. The pledges won first place in pageantry at the fall chariot races with a twelve-foot "Horse of Troy."

The social program included an alumni picnic at El Monte Park, the annual luau at La Jolla shores, a dance at the El Cortez, a Christmas formal at the Lafayette Hotel. The season was climaxed by the Cross and Crescent Ball at Borrego Springs, where they played host to the USC, UCLA, and Santa Barbara chapters.

Prominent Lambda Chi's included Jim Glover and Gary Riggs, who appeared in campus dramatic productions; Bob Chandler, sports announcer for the campus FM radio shows; and Jim Albanese, active in debating and a member of Oceotl.

FALL CHARIOT RACES

The queen candidates relax while the crowd rises for the final race.

Taking top honors in the fall semester pledge chariot races, sponsored by the Interfraternity Council, was Sigma Chi, winner of the final race by six inches over Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Lambda Chi Alpha, winner of the pageantry with a huge Trojan horse. The Sigs' winning time in the final heat was 12 seconds. Kappa Alpha Theta Joyce Harris, Sigma Chi's candidate, was crowned queen of the race.

The TKE's, using an unconventional harness to pull their chariot, tied with Sigma Chi in the first heat with a time of 11.5 seconds. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, winner of the second heat with 11.7, finished third; Delta Sigma Phi, winner of the third heat with 12.5, fourth; and Sigma Phi Epsilon, fourth heat winner, also in 12.5, finished fifth in the finals.

Other fraternities participating in the race were Kappa Sigma, Pi Kappa Alpha, Lambda Chi Alpha, Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Alpha, Theta Chi, Zeta Beta Tau, and Phi Sigma Kappa.

Queen JOYCE HARRIS, Sigma Chi candidate, beams.

JONI HALE, Delta Sig candidate, is escorted to her seat.

RALLY COMMITTEE

DAVE CREIGH, Rally Chairman

A busy group on campus was the Rally Committee. Dave Creigh, head chairman, divided the group into four emphasis committees and enlarged the membership to 60. The biggest feather in the committee's cap was its organizing of the highly successful card stunt performances at the football game half-times. Bill Demos headed the card stunt committee; Ron Doctor, the rally committee; Arlene Daly, the decoration committee; and Ruth Rowe, the publicity.

PEP BAND

RON FEILER, Pep Band Leader

San Diego State's Pep Band, a spirited group of seven led by Ron Feiler, was active this year in giving musical support at rallies, basketball games, Xolotl Orientation Day, and the AWS Orientation Assembly. Originally organized in 1946, the band was revamped during the '56 grid season. Alan Oldfield and Dave Greene arranged the group's music.

Kappa Sigma and Kappa Alpha Theta combined their efforts to produce the prize-winning float at the Homecoming parade. Depicting the parade theme "Monty Salutes Yokahama," float chairmen Sharon Jackson and Ray Precourt shared honors when their float took the coveted sweepstakes award. The float, titled "Monty Salutes Kabuki," was arranged almost entirely of floral sheeting in beige, black and orange hues, with accents of bright color on the figures. The figures represented actors and musicians of the Japanese Kabuki Theatre. Each figure had moving parts. As the figures moved they emitted strains of Japanese Shinto music. Several weeks later the Kappa Sig's and Theta's received recognition from the officials of North Park's Annual Toyland Parade.

SWEEPSTAKES

WINNER

Delta Zeta's "Flying Carp," symbolic of an age-old Japanese custom, won dual honors in the 1957 Homecoming parade by taking both first in women's division and the best design and construction award. Designed by Katey Bosworth and Pat Rogers around a color scheme of turquoise, royal blue and blue-green, the "Flying Carp" went on to represent S.D.S.C. in the North Park Toyland Parade.

Directed by Ronnie Girard and designed by Phil Kaplan, Tau Kappa Epsilon's float, "Teke House of the August Moon," took first honors in the men's division of the parade. The front of the float was a twelve foot Kabuki mask of white, brown, and black. On the rear of the float was a large red and white tea house. The remainder of the float was done in red, white, and black. Johnny Bryce, TKE, rode the back of the float wearing an original Geisha kimono.

"Monty Salutes Madame Butterfly" took mixed division honors. Emily Groch, designer of the float, and Ed Chombeau, float chairman of Sigma Kappa and Theta Chi, planned a predominantly white float of floral sheeting. Gauze-winged butterflies of lavender and purple rested before a bridge leading to a delicate pagoda-like structure, surrounded by blossoming cherry trees. In the pagoda sat a girl dressed in authentic Japanese costume. Sigma Kappa's and Theta Chi's also entered their float in the North Park Toyland Parade, where they took another award.

BLUE BOOK BALL

The fall semester Blue Book Ball, sponsored by the Freshman Class, was held at the huge Mission Beach Ballroom, as is perennial and is becoming traditional.

Les Brown and his Band of Renown tipped with the music and were quite entertaining. Vocalist Joann Green did several quasi-progressive numbers.

Lynne Luckey, candidate of Lambda Chi Alpha, was selected Belle of the Ball. She competed with sixteen other freshmen, one of the largest groups ever to seek the title. Both men and women AS-card holders were eligible to vote for the Belle of the Ball this year, rather than just the male contingent as for past Blue Books.

Freshman Class President Ron Creigh said he felt that the new voting procedures would insure a more proportionate and representative outcome.

The candidates were presented to the student body in an assembly in the Quad preceding the Ball.

INTER - PROTESTANT & ANGLICAN COUNCIL

The Inter-Protestant and Anglican Council was formed to provide a common meeting place for the various religions. During the meetings the representatives of the religions discuss Christian fellowship, religious inspiration, and try to find solutions to common social and educational problems confronting Christian groups today. The president of the Council this year was Janice Johnson. Her cabinet consisted of Connie Young, vice-president; Mary Ann Donaldson, secretary; and Lynn Erickson, treasurer. The faculty adviser was Dr. Charles Yahr.

INTER - FAITH COUNCIL

All the various faiths on the San Diego State campus are represented in the Inter-faith Council, headed this year by Hugh Smith. The other officers are Robin White, vice-president; Martha Kenney, secretary; and Kay Prager, treasurer. The Council's main job is to provide a means for getting people of different faiths to work for common religious purposes. The Council annually sponsors Religious Emphasis Week, which is a week set aside each December to inform students about the various faiths through campus speakers and activities.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation, which is a unit of the Methodist student movement, now has more than 100 members on the campus. The purposes of the organization are to help students develop their personal religious life, to promote Christian fellowship on campus, to help build a Christian world fellowship, and to help students find friends away from home. The program includes weekly dinner meetings, speakers, recreation activities, group worship, a daily Noon Luncheon Association, service projects, Bible study, and social activities. Dave Corbin was president this year.

The Presbyterian student group on campus is the Westminister Club. This year the group sponsored activities to promote the religious aspect of college life, awarded a scholarship to an international student, and sponsored camping expeditions, a spring banquet, special holiday parties, faculty firesides, and a public service election forum. The fall officers were Jack Brennan, moderator; Dave Lydon, vice-moderator; Traile Wilson, secretary; Roberta Long and Ann Spikes, treasurers. The spring officers were Traile Wilson, moderator; Chuck Henderson, vice-moderator; Nadine Noecker, secretary; and Gary Eberling, treasurer.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION

This group was organized to unite Christian Scientists on the campus by encouraging the application of Christian Science to their studies. The group holds a reception at the beginning of each semester, weekly testimony meetings, monthly business meetings, and several other social gatherings. Gary Albright was president, Bud Dernbach was corresponding secretary, and David Knight was secretary of the group this year. In the fall semester, Charlotte Foley was vice-president and Robin White was recording secretary. The two other spring officers were Arlene Austin, vice-president, and Mary Lou Nicholas, recording secretary.

HILLEL

Hillel is the Jewish organization organized to promote the social, cultural, religious, and education aspects of Jewish life on the San Diego State campus. The social activities for this year, in addition to the regular meetings, included dances, picnics, and snow parties. The group also took an active part in Religious Emphasis Week. Bob Tuchin was the Hillel president, Linda Zuckerman was vice-president, Betty Krasnow was recording secretary, Kay Prager was corresponding secretary, and Milton Mollick was treasurer. The group adviser was Dr Harry Ruja.

The College YMCA-YWCA has one of the most varied activities calendars on the entire campus. The main purpose of the group is to provide a fellowship for those who desire to discover through study, action, and worship the ideals of Christian living. The College Y sponsors such events as dinners prepared by the international students, social and recreational events for the married students, fire-side discussions in the homes of faculty members, religious and philosophical discussions, and get-acquainted cluster groups for freshmen. Dave Dodge was the president of the student cabinet, and Dave Neptune was the executive director.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club, an organization for Catholic students, is designed to promote the spiritual life through retreats, lectures, and monthly Communion breakfasts. The club also sponsors various social events from pizza parties to ice skating. The highlights of the year for the club were the winning of the trophy for the best independent float in the Homecoming Parade, and the second annual Mardi Gras Ball. The officers were Mark McDermott, president; Jim Chanoux, vice-president; Gail Miller and Barbara Weidner, secretaries; Glenn Bach, treasurer; and Pat Thompson, historian.

TRI C

Tri-C is the religious organization on campus designed especially for students of the Congregational, Evangelical, and Reform Churches. The activity calendar for this year included bi-monthly dinner meetings, hay rides, socials, camp conferences, and faculty firesides, where the members and faculty discussed common problems facing college students. The fall officers were Robert Brooke, president; Robert Berger, vice-president; Joan Brownell, secretary; and Dick Ranson, treasurer. The spring officers were Joan Brownell, president; Joanne Donahoo, vice-president; Robert Berger, secretary; and Ronald Netzley, treasurer.

PI PHI EPSILON

Any woman interested in either the business or economics professions is eligible to join Pi Phi Epsilon. The main purposes of the group are to acquaint the women with these two areas, and to help them establish contacts in the business world. Jody Sutton was president this year. She was assisted by Bernardine Bussey, vice-president; Joyce Wheaton, secretary; and Joan Juelson, treasurer. The members of the group helped in many areas during Placement Week on the campus, were hostesses at the Personnel Management Association banquet, and helped a needy family during the holiday season.

Kappa Delta Pi was organized in 1927 to encourage high professional intellectual, and personal standards among students in the education department. Members must be recommended by a faculty member and have a high scholastic average. The group sponsors business and social meetings to acquaint the seventy members with the various aspects and problems in the elementary and secondary education fields. Judy Lane Shepard was president this year. Her cabinet consisted of Bob McKewan, vice-president; Judy Clausen, secretary; and Lloyd LaPlant and Beverlee Deem, treasurers.

AZTEC THEATER GUILD

One of the best known organizations on campus is the Aztec Treater Guild. This group is responsible for many of the excellent plays presented during the year. This year the Guild presented "Ring Around The Moon," "Much Ado About Nothing," "The Little Foxes," and "The Father," as well as assisting with all the other college stage productions. The members also fit in such social activities as dinners and crew parties with their work. The officers were Jack Walsh, president; Carole Baldauf, vice-president; Annette Abdelnour, secretary; and Dale Muchmore, business manager.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

The Modern Dance Club was organized in 1949 to stimulate interest in the dance as a creative art expression and to offer an opportunity for participation as a member of a concert group. During this year the club presented an original Oriental Phantasy dance concert, participated in various theater productions in San Diego, presented dance demonstrations, and sponsored two guest teachers to teach master lessons in contemporary dance. Carol Jett was president, Sharon Price was vice-president, Connie Colonelli was secretary, and Linda Blackford was treasurer.

PI KAPPA DELTA

The leading San Diego State speakers form the membership of Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary speech fraternity. Students tapped for membership in this group must have competed in at least six intercollegiate debates or speech contests. In addition to representing the college in speaking contests over the United States, this group also sponsors several speech tournaments for local high school students. Johanne Steinmetz was president during the fall semester, and Fred Fox was spring president. Other officers were John Twelker, Connie Greaser, and Paul West.

NURSES ASSOCIATION

The Student Nurses Association is the local affiliate of the State and National Student Nursing Associations. The activity schedule for this group included a carnival, cake sale, car wash, freshman tea, state and national conventions, and many parties in the dorm at County Hospital, where most of the members live. The fall officers were Sondra Wilson, president, JoAnn Johnson, Barbara Johnston, Ruth Sluder, and Nancy McCleese. Janet Scovil was the spring president. Her cabinet included Sue Laird, Davonne Clark, Evelyn Hipsher, and Mary Ann Hooker.

Tau Sigma was organized in 1932 by San Diego State business administration and economics majors who felt that students with a common interest would benefit greatly by participation in group activities. Each month the group sponsors a dinner meeting with an outstanding guest speaker from the professional world. Tau Sigma is the only group on campus to have its own credit union. Since the federal charter was received in 1936, the national union has loaned over $500,000 to members without a loss. Floyd Anderson was president in the fall semester, and Robert Smith was spring president.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club is one of the most active service groups on campus. Their service projects this year included decorating and building furniture for the industrial arts building, making name plates for faculty members, building departmental mailboxes, distributing food baskets to needy families during the holidays, and establishing a blood fund for the industrial arts department. In addition, they also had bowling parties and several dances. The fall officers were Charles Oxe, president; Orval Breckheimer, vice-president; Leroy Smith, secretary; and Henry Falbe, treasurer.

INSTITUTE OF AERONAUTICAL SCIENCES

The student branch of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences is a relatively new organization on the San Diego State campus. It was organized in 1954 by a small group of engineering students, but it has now grown to include not only regular students, but also many evening students working in the aeronautical industry. Many of the top men from the local aircraft plants have been the guest speakers at the regular monthly meetings of the group. The officers for 1957-58 were Michael Chilcote, chairman; Karl Hogquest, vice-chairman; Henry Chott, secretary; and James Holmes, treasurer.

SOCIETY OF AUTOMOTIVE ENGINEERS

The Society of Automotive Engineers is one of the most active clubs in the Engineering Department. The group was established locally in 1948 for the purpose of helping the members learn more about their particular fields of engineering. In addition to sponsoring many interesting meetings and speakers, the Society also schedules a full activity calendar, including dances, dinners, and bowling parties. The chairman during the fall semester was Dick Caswell, and Merle Strum led the group during the spring semester. The adviser of the group was Charles Morgan.

AZTEC RADIO AND TELEVISION GUILD

Members of the Aztec Radio and Television Guild not only have an active social program, but they also receive valuable training since the group writes, directs, dramatizes, and engineers a radio show each day over KSDS-FM. The social events of the year were climaxed by a trip to Los Angeles to visit the broadcasting facilities of the big studios. Guild membership is open to anyone who participates in the college radio and television programs. The fall officers were Bob Dyer, Virginia Waters, Don Dresser, and Dave Newton. The spring officers were Wally Meads, Jack Wilson, Jill Warnes, and Dorothy Embree.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

Women majoring or minoring in music are eligible to try out for membership in Sigma Alpha Iota, the national professional music fraternity for women. This group presents an annual American Musicales and a Christmas Vespers Program for the public, it ushers and presents musical entertainment for other clubs and organizations, and it stages such social events as parties and spaghetti dinners for its own membership. Carolyn Boles was president of this active fraternity. Gerry Schmitt was vice-president, Clara Johnston and Marjorie Iverson were secretaries, and Marilyn Allen was treasurer.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Any woman on campus with an interest in home economics is eligible for membership in the Home Economics Club. The club presented many guest speakers and demonstrations during this year, sent representatives to state conventions, and also found time to sponsor such events as a bake sale, a Christmas fruit cake sale, and a fashion show where models wore clothes made in sewing classes. The fall officers were Joan Petersen, president, assisted by Lynne Erickson, Janet Rice, and Roberta Fink; and the spring officers were Miriam Leonard, president, assisted by Geri Renz, Elizabeth Mulcahy, and Gerry Ottonello.

WOMEN'S RECREATION ASSOCIATION

The Women's Recreation Association is open to all women students. Its main purpose is to provide recreation and social activity among the students. The officers elected at the Spring Associated Students election were Marilyn Sowle, president; Arlene Barrett, vice-president; Carol Goodwin, secretary; and Carol Carpenter, treasurer. The WRA activity calendar for the year included Pow Wow Play Day, the All College and University Badminton Tournament, co-recreation nights, high school play-days, mountain parties, and the inter-sorority sports program.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

Membership in the San Diego State Physical Education Club, or SPEC as it is called, is open to women majoring or minoring in the field of physical education or recreation. Dr. Margaret Murphy was the adviser for this year, Jody Johnston was president, Connie Thompson was vice-president, and Barbara Bowlin was secretary-treasurer. SPEC sponsors many social and recreational activities, and also arranges special activities to acquaint the members with their future profession and its related fields.

PHI MU ALPHA SINFONIA

A national honorary music fraternity for men students, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia was established at San Diego State in 1950 to advance the cause of music. The group provides for the welfare of music students, encourages loyalty, and fosters the ideals of brotherhood and service in the musical world. The fraternity sponsors a scholarship, live and record concerts, plus other social activities. The 1957-58 officers were Robert McKewen, president; James Cusack, vice-president; Arthur Koenig, secretary; and William Bope, treasurer.

AZTEC FOREIGN & SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION

The Aztec Foreign and Sports Car Association was formed last year by a group of sports car enthusiasts, and membership is now open to any student who owns or is interested in foreign and sports cars. The club has semi-monthly meetings and sponsors numerous sports car events. Among these are rallies, gymkhanas, and road tours in which members and guests are enabled to display their driving skill. The charter officers were Tom Madsen, president; Chuck Fleenor, vice-president; Gaie Yenrick and Kay Shank, secretaries; and Bruce Moore, treasurer.

PI OMEGA PI

Pi Omega Pi, an honorary business education fraternity, was organized to encourage students to select the teaching of business education as a career. The organization is devoted toward fostering a professional attitude among student teachers, and toward advancing the field of business education on a local, state, and national level. Quentin Decker was the president, Herb Gross was vice-president, Evelyn Jenkins and Donna Karaffa served as secretaries, Joan Juelson was treasurer, and Betty Padelford was historian.

AESCULAPIANS

Aesculapians was organized in 1942 for men and women students interested in following either a pre-medical or pre-dental career. Almost all the major academic areas on campus are represented in the group. Aesculapians sponsors lectures by noted persons in the medical and dental professions, field trips, discussions, and various social gatherings. The fall officers were Richard Gardner, president; Roger Krebs, vice-president; Roberta Hart, secretary; and Lawrence Babbitt, treasurer. The spring officers were Lawrence Babbitt, president; Joseph Nichols, vice-president; Roberta Hart, secretary; and William Babine, treasurer.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary national scholastic fraternity for freshman women, was installed on the San Diego State campus in 1956. Membership in the fraternity is open to freshmen women with a grade-point average of 3.5 or better. The women schedule many special social events along with their student tutoring program. Alpha Lambda Delta also joins with Phi Eta Sigma, the men's scholastic organization, in sponsoring two initiation banquets each year. The president this year was Carole DeVore. Barbara Hall was vice-president, Tracy Barrett was secretary, and Peggy Lester was treasurer.

Delvers is one of the oldest departmental organizations on the campus. It was organized in 1934 to further geologic interest and investigation. Several noted geologists spoke at the club's meetings during the year. The members also took many field trips to places of geological interest around San Diego. Delvers president for this year was Oscar Huber. He was assisted by Gar Willis, vice-president; Ralph Bannach, secretary; and Richard Chumbley, treasurer.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

The American Chemical Society was chartered on campus in 1948. The group sponsored many activities this year, such as noted speakers from the professional world, chemistry demonstrations during Founders' Day, a high school chemistry day, and a trip to the Air Force Rocket Research Center. The president in the fall semester was Lynne Myers. She was assisted by James Hanna, vice-president; Roberta Hart, secretary; and Paula Sandoval, treasurer. The spring officers were Jon Martin, president; Michael Sulprizio, vice-president; Charles Luby, secretary; and Jerry Galwas, treasurer.

The San Diego State Aztecs suffered a discouraging 2-7 win-loss record in 1957, but Coach Paul Governali's young club gave the opposition unexpected trouble on numerous occasions, highlighted with their upset over San Francisco State, 14-13. This season can be chalked up to experience, since that was, as it turned out, its chief accomplishment.

When Governali and his staff began training this squad in the spring and late summer, it was evident that the Aztecs lacked experienced men at many positions. The line was lighter than usual, with center Everett Hughes, tackles Rey Fackrell and Jerry Ohlin, and ends Braxton Pinkins and Dallas Evans the only experienced players. The backfield had better depth, but it was light and hampered by pre-season injuries. Don Magee played his fourth year at quarterback for the Aztecs, with Karl Jordan, Cecil McGehee, Larry Schimpf, and Bob Nelson the only other Staters with a great amount of experience. SDS came up with new men who gave the Aztecs a lot of excellent service this year. Joe Duke took over the first-string quarterback position with his excellent passing. Three guards, Ray Glaze, Wayne Whitby, and Octavio Cano transferred in, while newcomers to the backfield were Al Silva, Manny Ventura, Daryl Goodwin, and Mike Tarlton. Grim determination and stiff workouts changed this inexperienced team into a game unit. On opening night, the Aztecs held the highly rated COP Tigers to a 32-6 victory. The next week SFS lost to State, 14-13, on Jordan's conversions. La Verne proved to be no match, losing 38-0. The Marines landed the following week and then San Jose. During these losses, numerous key players were injured and this proved to be the pattern for the remainder of the season. By the Pepperdine game, the Aztec squad was whittled down by injuries and illnesses, and the Waves rolled over the Montezumans, 14-12.

Despite the extremely rough schedule, an inexperienced squad, and the injuries, Governali and his staff of Bill Schutte, Frank Vitale, and Charlie Smith whipped a fighting squad into shape by the opening game.

Line-up for the Kick Off.

AZTECS UPSET SAN FRANCISCO STATE, 14-13

Karl Jordan was Hero of the Week as he kicked two conversions, providing the one-point margin over a tough SFS club. The game was pretty much see-saw, with both teams fighting all the way. San Diego opened it up in the second quarter on a pass from Don Magee to Cece McGehee, a 28-yard play, climaxing a 70-yard drive. The Gators immediately caught fire and stormed through every Aztec defense to score twice in the next few minutes. Bob Rodrigo missed the second conversion try, which proved fatal for the Gators. Karl Jordan, playing his best game before his unlucky injury, led the Aztec backfield, carrying the ball for 84 yards in 21 tries. Trailing 13-7 in the final quarter, the Aztecs put on a final spurt which culminated in a touchdown pass from Joe Duke to Manny Ventura. Jordan's conversion put San Diego on top to stay. San Francisco was favored for its size and experience, but this meant nothing with the heads-up Aztecs taking advantage of every Gator fumble and mistake.

TIGERS RIP AZTECS IN OPENER, 32-6

College of Pacific invaded San Diego for the season opener with a high rating and left that night with a greater respect for the Aztecs. The COP Tigers were rated nationally, and played true-to-form, dominating the game both in the air and on the ground. However, our underdogs played impressively, twice holding the Tigers in goal line stands.

Trailing at the half, 19-0, the Aztecs came back strong, headed by Joe Duke's passing attack. His two last-quarter passes to Dallas Evans brought the ball to the COP two, where Duke dove over for the touchdown. While the Tigers from Stockton displayed their abilities, the Aztecs were ripening into a tough little unit to be reckoned with.

yard pass to McGehee in the second quarter. McGehee had been the only one running well all night for the Red and Black, and he sped away from the Marine secondary to grab Duke's toss and run for the score. Meanwhile, the Marines were murder on the ground as they collected 413 yards with Pyles and Al Hall being especially tough to stop. Guards Wayne Whitby and Ray Glaze stood out on defense for the Aztecs, one of the reasons why the Marines failed to score more than 20 points.

SAN JOSE TROMPS SDS, 46-0

Rumors had it that the San Jose Spartans were down with the flu, but this was not confirmed as SJS displayed a fantastic passing attack in defeating the Aztecs, 46-0. San Jose completed nine out of its ten pass attempts; the incomplete was intercepted. With 219 yards passing and 329 key men in the line and backfield limping. Cece McGehee and Bob Nelson headed the offense as the Aztec quarterbacks suffered a poor day.

AZTECS SMASH LA VERNE, 38-0, SILVA SCORES THREE TD'S

Fullback Al Silva, hampered most of the season by injuries, proved to the crowd that he is SDS' fastest back, scoring three touchdowns, twice on short runs and once on a 62-yard pass from Don Magee. The La Verne game was only a fill-in for the flu-ridden Cal Poly club, but it was State's last chance to laugh this season. Everyone got into the act, and some of the younger members of the Aztec '11' indicate that next year's team will be strong. Joe Duke, Jerry Booth, and Don Magee headed a powerful passing attack, gaining 217 yards, completing eight out of 14 attempts. Duke threw two TD passes, one to Brax Pinkins and the other to Mike Tarlton. Booth scored the final touchdown on a sneak. La Verne had managed to net a grand total of 78 yards, passing and running.

MARINES OVERPOWER SAN DIEGO, 20-7, EX AZTECS STARS

The San Diego Marines ended State's two-game winning streak, crushing the Aztec offense while running rampant over their defense. Joe Duke completed eight passes for 118 yards, but the rest of the Aztec offense was limited to 28 yards on the ground. Ex-Aztec Jimmy Pyles carried 17 times for 159 yards, leading the Marine offense on the ground.

One highlight, as far as the home-town fans were concerned, was Duke's 61-

AZTECS LOSE TO TEMPE, 66-0

Though the Aztecs suffered their second straight shut-out, it was at the hands of one of the toughest football machines in the nation. Arizona State at Tempe was ranked No. 11 among the nation's teams and was considered as strong as any Pacific Coast Conference team. Their fleet backfield of Leon Burton, Joe Belland, and Bob Mulgado led the nation in rushing. John Hangartner is one of the best quarterbacks in the business, too. The fans came to see a track meet and they saw it, but they also saw a fired-up Aztec squad fight most of the way. Injuries and fumbles caught up with the Aztecs despite a few very serious threats at the goal line. The Aztecs offense was underestimated with the quarterbacks Duke and Magee completing 13 of 29 passes for 213 yards.

Tempe set a new Aztec record for total yards gained by an opponent, 557 yards, and tied for the most points scored against the Aztecs, 66. Braxton Pinkins broke a couple of records. Don Jurk's five-year-old record was broken when Pinkin caught four passes for 141 yards. Brax surpassed Art Preston's career record total of 727 yards gained on pass receptions, and by season's end had accumulated 796.

San Diego State takes "Time Out!"

FRESNO OVER SDS, 27-0

The Fresno State Bulldogs, always a tough opponent for the Aztecs, defeated San Diego State, 27-0, as fullback Dean Philpott led FSC with an 8-yard per carry average. The San Diego offense was stronger than the score disclosed. Joe Duke completed five for eleven in the air, netting 105 yards. Fullback Larry Schimpf led the Aztec running attack with 62 yards in ten carries. San Diego's biggest scoring threat came in the last quarter when Schimpf ran the ball to the one-foot line. On the next play, the Aztecs fumbled and lost possession of the ball.

HAWAII WINS HOMECOMING GAME, 25-0

The Hawaii Marines marred an otherwise successful Homecoming weekend by exhausting the Aztecs, 25-0. The Marines did not look too much the better team during the first half, eking out two touchdowns in the half to lead 13-0. In the second half, it looked as though State were going to bridge the gap with long downfield drives, but these attempts were cut short, and finally exhausted, the Aztecs allowed two more TD's to score in the final quarter. Aztec quarterback Joe Duke hit seven of his 17 passing attempts for 82 yards and ran for 31 more.

PEPPERDINE UPSETS STATE IN FINAL CONTEST, 14-12

San Diego State hadn't anticipated an easy schedule this season, but they had hoped to end up with a victory over a favorite "cousin," Pepperdine College. The Waves were up for this one, though, and the Aztecs were never in worse physical condition. Dallas Evans, Player of the Homecoming Game, was lost to the squad with hepatitis. Jordan and Silva were still unable to see much action. Nevertheless, the Aztecs looked the strongest team on the field that night, but lost to Pepperdine the same way they beat San Francisco, conversions. The Aztecs netted a total yardage of 290 as opposed to the Waves' 194. Larry Schimpf sparked the first touchdown march, the score being made by freshman Mike Tarlton. Their second touchdown came when the Waves kicked off twice out of bounds and the Aztecs took possession on the 50. In seven plays, SDS was down to the five-yard line, where Cece McGehee took it over for the last Aztec tally of the season.

This unfortunate defeat ended one of the roughest seasons San Diego has ever played. The Aztecs scored only 77 points the whole season. Though seeing only part-time duty, fullback Al Silva tied Cecil McGehee with 18 points each for individual scoring honors. Mike Tarlton was third on the team with 12. McGehee and Larry Schimpf carry and will prove to be very important in future seasons led the Aztecs in rushing for the year, Cece netting 218 yards, Schimpf gaining 212. Tarlton averaged 5.8 yards per as an Aztec runner. Joe Duke, a junior, will be back next year to defend his title as All-Conference quarterback. He completed 49 of 121 pass attempts for 719 yards and four touchdowns. Don Magee, in his fourth year, threw two TD passes, seeing limited action. Braxton Pinkins will play his fourth season next fall, and will add appreciable strength to this year's young team which will be next year's experienced squad. If the 1958 Aztecs display 1957 spirit, they'll go a long way.

Jim Symington leads huddle discussion.

This was the first year for the San Diego State Frosh, and the Papooses displayed a lot of talent which will show up later on the varsity field. The coach of this spirited young club was Carl Benton, and his energetic assistant was Chuck Perpich.

The squad was light, but fine plays and hustle more than compensated for this handicap. Quarterback Jim Symington was an excellent ball-handler and his passing was smooth and consistent. One of the most outstanding candidates for next year's varsity, however, is half-back Bob Ball, whose quick runs sparked the Frosh's rallies. Guard Les Parker, 190 pounds, played very well, and his hustle and determination were indicative of the kind of football these men played.

The Frosh lost their first two games to Pomona-C Claremont and Long Beach State, but came back with a stunning victory over Cal Western, 45-6. The Whittier Poets walked over the Frosh in the final game.

In the Cal Western game, Symington threw two touchdown passes and ran for another. Ball scored four touchdowns, while the SDS Frosh line opened up enormous holes. Jim Perry, Gene Goycothea, LeRoy Pendray, Chuck Cunningham, Don Frame, and Keith Richardson were key men on the line, while Dick Winn and Neal Spicer gave depth to the backfield.

BASKETBALL

Head Coach GEORGE ZIEGENFUSS and Assistant PAUL RUNDELL

The Aztec basketball squad was built around many new players, and for the first part of the season, their emphasis was on learning to work together as a team. By the season's end, however, the SDS '5' had overcome that handicap and tied Fresno State for the California Collegiate Athletic Association Championship. San Diego's 9-2 league record was as impressive as any they had attained in the past, considering both losses were to the strong champions, Fresno.

While State College was occupied with the football season, another phase of the year's athletic schedule was quietly forming. In the Aztec gym, Coach George Ziegenfuss and a dozen basketball players were starting to round into form for the 1957-58 cage season. Ziegenfuss was anticipating a bitter winter, with Tony Pinkins and many of his other dependables graduated in the previous two years. Guard Archie Rambeau was the only returning starter.

This was obviously not going to be a one-man team. Rambeau, the captain, was not going to be able to carry the load for the whole season. He graduated at mid-season. Center Gerry Mulder, forwards Bill Gillespie and Braxton Pinkins, and guards Blake Neal and Hal Brown were the only other Aztec squad members from the previous season.

There were some new faces on the Aztec squad, though, and they helped make this the most surprising Aztec team in many years. Bernie Finlay, Steve Evans, Bernie Revak, Ray Waters, Jim Doherty, and Loren Sheppard rounded out Coach Ziegenfuss' squad.

Ray Waters jumps high to win tip-off against Pepperdine.

The only height on the team belonged to the two centers, Gerry Mulder, 6-7, and Tom Noonan, 6-5. An undersized, relatively inexperienced team, the Aztecs were dependent on their speed. At the beginning of the season, it looked as though speed was not going to bring them through. The Aztecs were hitting less than 40% of their field goal attempts and were being beaten consistently. The Alumni topped SDS in the opener, 62-57. The "old-timers" looked pretty young, sparked by guard Don Hegerle, who scored 17 points and showed the undergrads the old college spirit. Bill Gillespie led the team in scoring with 12 points. The Aztecs had yet to learn to operate as a team.

Pasadena College came through with a stunning 98-72 slaughter, hitting 49% of their field goal attempts. San Diego lost the game in the first half, where Pasadena once led 36-16. Blake Neal, Aztec guard, was hot that night, however, leading both teams in scoring with 19. The Pasadenaans had six players scoring over 10 points. In their third game of the season, the Aztecs lost to the San Diego Marines, 56-52, though the first sign of the "new" Aztec spirit was apparent. The Aztecs trailed at half-time, 33-19, but came back strong in the second half, once trailing by only one point. Captain Archie Rambeau led the Aztecs in scoring with 13 points, and he and Bill Gillespie sparked the second-half spurt. On December 7, the Aztecs finally broke into the win column, upsetting a highly touted San Francisco Presidio squad, 64-54. Presidio brought with them Tony Psaltis, ex-SC ace, but he did them no good. Bill Gillespie scored 15, Rambeau bagged 14, and the Aztecs played good control ball. The fast break was used with more effectiveness, and clutch plays kept State a few points in the lead throughout the game. Whittier dumped SDS, 70-60, in the next non-league contest. San Diego trounced Loyola, 79-56, in the second of the four Christmas vacation games. University of Redlands was turned back, 60-50, and at that point of the season, the Aztecs were taking shape. Rambeau had asserted himself as leading scorer and top play-maker. Gillespie and Neal were already set at their positions and Ray Waters, Bernie Finlay, and Hal Brown were becoming regulars after starting slow.

Aztecs come to aid of Archie Rambeau, who is boxed in by Alums.

The last game of the Christmas vacation saw Whittier edged in overtime, 70-62. This seemed like the turning point in the season. Whittier had topped SDS earlier in the season, but the Aztecs came back a smoother, more adept unit. Blake Neal led the team in scoring with 17 points, and Hal Brown was second with 15. Neal scored 14 points in the last seven minutes to enable SDS to overcome an eleven point deficit and tie the Poets at the buzzer, 62-all.

The Pepperdine Waves rolled over the Aztecs, 84-68, to bring State's record to 4 wins and 5 losses. Sterling Forbes and George Taylor both topped 20 points to lead Pepperdine. The Waves hit 61% of their shots and were too hot to beat that night. Hal Brown, Aztec guard, hit an even 20 points.

San Diego State upset Fresno State in its first CCAA tilt of the season, 73-71. It took overtime to allow the Aztecs to drop the Bulldogs, heavy favorites to win the league title. Arch Rambeau scored 22 points and Hal Brown made 14 to lead SDS in the scoring column. Center Tom Noonan was at his best that night, guarding 6'9" Gary Alcorn. Fresno's Alcorn scored only seven to Noonan's 11. Bernie Finlay and Ray Waters were displaying outstanding ability at rebounding, proving very successful against one of the biggest teams in the league. The game was close to the end, when with 20 seconds to go in the overtime, Hal Brown's basket put the Aztecs in front, 73-71.

Bernie Finlay springs to his side to prevent Santa Barbara play.

The Aztecs finished a big weekend by shading Los Angeles State, 64-62. This was the third straight league victory of the season, and added to the six final league games of the previous season, SDS set a new school record, with nine consecutive CCAA victories. Bernie Finlay led the Aztecs with 24 points, Hal Brown had 19, and Archie Rambeau hit for 14. With the score tied 62-62, State had the ball with a minute left in the game. The Aztecs stalled until the last eight seconds, when Rambeau dropped in the clincher with a jump shot.

Though Rambeau scored 22 points, SDS failed to repeat its win performance over Fresno State in the rematch. It was nothing less than a drubbing with the Bulldogs victorious 93-65. At this point of the season, Fresno and Los Angeles were tied in the league, 4-1, and San Diego was third with 3-1.

In a non-league tussle, the Aztecs recovered from a seven-point half-time deficit to upset Arizona, 83-76. Arizona had played a rough schedule to that date and were favored by comparative scores with common opponents. But this was a different Aztec team than the one that lost those season openers. The Arizona squad had scored on 53% of its field goal attempts in the first half, but Archie Rambeau kept State within striking distance, scoring 19 points. The Aztecs came back strong, sparked by Bernie Finlay, Ray Waters, and Hal Brown. The score was quickly tied, and team effort and speed put State in front to stay. Rambeau made 23 points, Waters had 18, and Finlay, 16.

Long Beach State was the next Aztec victim, 73-53. SDS was not fooling around any more. They led 32-19 at the half, never giving LBS a chance. Rambeau scored 19 that night. This was another team victory, though, and Ray Waters was extremely valuable keeping Long Beach's big scorer, Bill Baron, away from the basket. Bill Gillespie scored 14 points, and Bernie Finlay scored 12.

Arizona State at Tempe was edged by the Aztecs, 74-72. Tom Noonan came out of his slump and played possibly his best game to date. He controlled the backboards on defense and on offense he tallied 16 points. Forward Bernie Finlay followed in the scoring with 15. The control of the ball exercised by Rambeau and Waters were decisive factors in this thrilling game.

Archie Rambeau played his last game as an Aztec, leading State to a 82-60 victory over Cal Poly and a first place tie with Fresno in the league. Archie was named San Diego Athlete of the Month by the Brietbard Athletic Foundation, and received the Bob Brady Award for outstanding Aztec basketball. Rambeau had accumulated 281 points for the season for a 15.7 average over 18 games. His field goal and free throw percentages were 51.9% and 80.7% respectively.

In two road games, the Aztecs trounced Loyola, 76-58 and Pepperdine, 70-59. Bernie Finlay led the assault on Loyola, netting 17 points. Bill Gillespie and Ray Waters each scored 12. With a 20-point lead in the second half, everybody was able to see duty, including Bill Tellous, a mid-season transfer from San Diego JC.

Hal Brown and Bernie Revak try to tie up Tony Pinkins, ex-Aztec great.

San Jose topped SDS, 73-70, the next night on the victor's floor. This was the last loss until the playoff game with Fresno. State was behind 59-38 with only four and a half minutes left. Aztec guard Jim Doherty sparked a rally which saw the Montezumans score 22 points to San Jose's four. Despite the rally, the Aztecs never could catch up. Doherty, now fully recovered from early season injuries, led State in scoring with 15 points.

San Diego dropped the Los Angeles Diablos for the second time this season, 67-60. The league's leading scorer, Terry Brazadier of LA, tallied 21 points, but he couldn't overcome the Aztec surge. Jim Doherty, now established as a "dead-shot," led State in scoring for the second night in a row, with 17. Bernie Finlay and Ray Waters each hit 11, and Rambeau notched 10. Ray Waters, top Aztec rebounder for the season, grabbed 17 off the backboards.

Pepperdine was exceptionally cold the next night, hitting only 30% from the floor. Though Doherty led the Aztecs in scoring with 18, scrappy Blake Neal was in the process of proving that the Aztecs were still a fighting team without Archie Rambeau. His ball-stealing and control were instrumental in the surprising upset. State was behind much of the first half, but the fast Aztec team pulled up quickly, tied, and then surged to a 59-45 lead.

The next weekend, San Diego scored a double win on the road, trouncing first Cal Poly, and then Santa Barbara, by scores of 81-60 and 83-58. Bernie Finlay scored 26 points against Poly and 15 against Santa Barbara to give him 41 points for the weekend. In both contests, the Aztecs' fast break and hustle overpowered the opposition. At Cal Poly, Jim Doherty scored 13, and Bernie Revak tallied 10. Against the Gauchos, Blake Neal scored 16 and Hal Brown accounted for 6 points. The absence of Rambeau had little effect on the Aztec performance. Archie was on the SDS bench for the remainder of the season, giving advice and inspiration.

As the CCAA season was coming to the wire, many things were becoming apparent. Despite the inexperience of the Aztec team in the fall, Coach Ziegenfuss had put together the most startling team in years. Bidding for a trip to the National Small Schools Playoffs, the Aztecs were almost required to win both final games of the regular season. Long Beach State fell first, 67-59, but the services of Bernie Finlay were temporarily lost as he fell on his ankle and was out for most of the game. The new sensation of the team, Jim Doherty, was ready to take over for Finlay, and sparked the Aztecs to an easy victory.

Santa Barbara was the last scheduled foe of the season, and the Aztecs had to win this one for assurance of a shot at the title. State's CCAA rival for the pennant, Fresno, was playing cellar-dwelling Cal Poly that same night. Gerry Mulder, Aztec center, sparked an otherwise cold first half. Mulder sank eleven points as the Aztecs led in the first half, 22-19. Jim Doherty and Blake Neal were strong on defense and kept Santa Barbara from going into the lead. The second half was not much more impressive offensively, but State's defense made the difference. Gerry Mulder and Ray Waters controlled the backboards, and Bernie Revak more than adequately replaced Bill Gillespie in the second half. Finlay came back into the game later in the latter quarter, and it was obvious by his hustle that his ankle wasn't going to keep him out of the Fresno play-off.

San Diego and Fresno met in the CCAA play-off, March 4, at the Los Angeles State gym. Many of the Aztec fans traveled there to cheer SDS, the team which couldn't draw fans to their home court early in the winter.

Fresno got off to a fantastic start, ringing up a 39 to 25 lead in the first half. The Bulldogs were hitting on 47% of their floor shots, while the cold Aztec club could pocket only one in three. Bill Gillespie and Bernie Finlay started at the forward spots, Ray Waters was at center, and Jim Doherty and Blake Neal were at guard. Ziegenfuss was sacrificing his height for speed.

When the Aztecs came out for the second half, many were convinced that the season was over. But this Aztec team didn't give up. Finlay and Waters sparked an offense that brought SDS within four points in the early part of the third quarter. Blake Neal and Bernie Revak gave State the defense it needed to stop Fresno cold. With eleven minutes left in the game, Finlay fouled out, but his second-half spark allowed the Aztecs to finally tie Fresno 54-54. Fresno temporarily took command, but the game was quickly tied at 65-all, until SDS chose to stall the ball with a minute and a half left in the game. With seconds to go, Jim Doherty was forced to shoot from outside, but his shot rimmed the hoop and popped out — a heartbreaker. To lead off the overtime, Gerry Mulder put the Aztecs ahead for the first time in the game, 67-65, with two foul shots. Ray Waters had to leave the game when his knee gave out. At this point, San Diego's defense gave way to Fresno's height, and the Bulldogs, headed by big Len Brown, won, 76-73. Doherty led the Aztecs in scoring with 21. Waters hit for 17, and Finlay scored 16. State's second half comeback was miraculous, and but for a few breaks, they would have been Champs.

FROSH BASKETBALL

The Frosh basketball team completed a successful 13 win, 9 loss season under Coach Carl Benton. The Frosh were pitted against many tough teams including the Calewo All-Stars, the Oceanside and San Diego J.C.'s, and the Loyola Frosh. Nonetheless, development of fine basketball talent was not hindered, but enhanced. Gene Phillips, versatile and fast, was high scorer, collecting 303 points in 22 games for a 13.8 average. Center Gael Barsotti (238 pts., 14.0 avg.), Ron Mulder (276 pts., 13.1 avg.), and Steve Evans (who split his time between frosh and varsity) also show enough promise to aid the varsity in 1958-59.

The highlight of the season was the nine-game winning streak, in which the Frosh beat Pepperdine Frosh, Hoover High, USS Sperry, MCRD Reserves (102-92), Cal Western, Oceanside J.C., Palomar J.C., Camp Elliott, and Vincent AFB. Phillips and Mulder scored 30 and 26 points, respectively, against MCRD. Gene Phillips garnered 32 points against Oceanside J.C. in that upset. Mike Ofner, take-charge-guy of the Papooses, dropped in 20 points against Palomar. Team effort amassed these victories.

In the Camp Elliott and Cal Western games, no less than five SDS men scored over 10 points. Later on in the season, SDS' strong drives accounted for their stirring overtime victory over Navy Hospital, with Mulder making 26 points. Other high scorers for the season included 29 points by Phillips against the IFC All-Stars and 29 points by Barsotti against Loyola Frosh.

The Aztec track squad, under the guidance of Coach Choc Sportsman, made a fine showing after a slow start against some rough competition. SDS was loaded with talent in the distance runs and hurdles, but there was some concern over lack of depth in the field events and sprints. Jim Carmean, a low hurdler, seems to have solved one problem in the sprints so far. Clay Westling (discus), Jim Terry (pole vault), and Simon Carey (javelin and shot put) have all allowed Coach Sportsman to sleep easier, too.

Bill Gallaher, Jack Ratelle, Ed Fabisak, Ray Eastman, and Bob Gallaher head a long list of strong runners whom the Aztecs could depend upon for many points in distance events. Rich Gehring, in his fourth year of competition, was a mainstay in the high hurdles.

Rain prevented the season to progress early in the spring. In their first meet, UCLA trounced the Aztecs and Redlands, 119-28-15. Some of the season's best times were posted by SDS runners, but it was extremely difficult to grab points away from Rafer Johnson & Co. Jack Ratelle was the only Aztec to take a first, copping the 440-yard run in 50.1 seconds. Ed Fabisak, a most promising freshman, ran the 2-mile in 9:34.6 minutes, while Bill Gallaher posted a 4:25.6 mile.

TRACK

In their final meet of the season, the Aztecs were felled by the University of Arizona, running in the evening to escape the heat. Arizona broke five meet records in the shot put, discus, high jump, mile run, and the mile relay. State had a few consolations from the 96-35 defeat. Dick Sweet won the 220 in 22.6 seconds, with Bill Shipley taking third. Ray Eastman copped the 440 in 49.2. In an exciting mile run, which Arizona's Ken Meenan won in 4:18 minutes, the field was closely packed at the finish wire. Right behind Meenan were SDS' Bill Gallaher (2nd) and Clarence Hamren (4th). Though Arizona was especially strong in the field events, Simon Carey and John Hoss gave the Aztecs a 1-2 finish in the javelin throw, Carey winning with 174 ft., 3 in.

Like most of the squads at San Diego, the track team was basically a young, promising unit. State will miss men like Rich Gehring, Clay Westling, and Russ Himmer, but the 1959 squad will be strong, nonetheless, with an experienced, fast team.

CHOC SPORTSMAN
Head Track Coach

It's two miles to go as they start in the tri-meet with Camp Pendleton and San Diego Track and Field Association.

Rich Gehring, who placed third in the 440 high hurdles in last year's NAIA meet.

SDSC's javelin power is exhibited here in the personage of John Hoss, Si Carey, and Ray Ratelle.

Discus hurler Clay Westling, who holds the SDSC varsity track record at 142 feet 3 1/2 inches.

In another tri-meet, Camp Pendleton dominated the field events and won in stride, 93 1/2; San Diego, 44 1/2; and San Diego Track and Field, 24. Dick Winn was the only Aztec to take a field event, that in the pole vault, lifting himself 12 feet, 2 inches. Jack Ratelle cut his time in the 440, winning with an even 50 seconds. Mike Muirhead, who ran a strong 880 against UCLA, almost duplicated his effort and took first this time with a time of 1:58.5 minutes. Depth in the distance events took on some significance when two Aztecs crossed the finish line of the mile before any opposition. Surprisingly, Clarence Hamren took first over Bill Gallaher, who set the school record last year with 4:16.4. Hamren's time was 4:25. Simon Carey, a new addition to the squad, improved on his performance in the javelin throw with a distance of 176 feet, 8 3/4 inches, but was still unable to break into the win column.

The Aztecs, beginning conference play, showed their prowess by beating Long Beach State, 96 3/4-34 1/2. San Diego was strong in the field events, promise of great things in the future. Sam Mankins took the high jump with a 6-4 leap, followed by teammates Owen Peck, Bill Hall, Bob Ball, and Phil Rogers, the last three tying for third. The 6-foot, 4-inch jump was good for a new dual meet record. Clay Westling took first in the discus throw with a toss of 134 feet, 1 1/2 inches. The Aztecs took second in this event, too, with Ed Miller's performance. Russ Himmer and Bob Ball finished 1-2 in the broad jump, Himmer leaping 22 feet, 5 inches. Jim Terry tied for first in the pole vault by clearing the cross-bar at the 13-foot mark.

Jim Carmean, Dick Sweet, and Bill Shipley finished 1-2-3 in the 100-yard dash for the Aztecs. Carmean ran it in 10 seconds flat. Sweet and Ed Hartman headed all opposition in the 220-yard dash in a time of 21.5 seconds.

Russ Himmer chalks up 22 feet 5 inches to take a first against Long Beach State.

SDSC's quarter milers, Jack Ratelle, Ray Eastman and Eddie Hartman warm up.

TRACK

San Diego State ran over Los Angeles State in the next meet, 89-42. Ed Fabisak, whose performances were off most of the season because of illnesses, took first in the 2-mile run with a time of 9:59.9. Bob Larsen grabbed 3 more points for SDS, finishing second behind Ed. Clarence Hamren won the mile in 4:32.5, followed by Bob Gallaher. Bill Gallaher took the 880-yard run in 1:58.1 minutes, with Jon Orvick second. Ray Eastman won the 440 in a new dual meet record time of 49.2 seconds, with Jack Ratelle a close runner-up. Rich Gehring, Phil Rogers, and Al Schrison finished 1-2-3 in the 120 high hurdles with a winning time of 15.5 seconds. Jim Carmean set a new dual meet record in the 220-yard lows, finishing in 23.7 seconds. Russ Himmer and Jim Walton finished in the money, giving SDS the sweep in low hurdles.

The Aztecs were equally strong in field events when they later beat Los Angeles State. Jim Terry pole vaulted 13 feet again, this time good for the new dual meet record. Simon Carey threw the javelin 174 feet 1 inch. John Hoss and Ray Ratelle took second and third to give San Diego another clean sweep. Sammy Mankins high jumped 6 feet, 2 inches, for first, as Owen Peck and Bill Hall tied for second. The relay team of Rich Gehring, Jon Orvick, Ray Eastman, and Ray Ratelle ended the successful meet in a time of 3:27.8.

Ray Eastman hands baton off to Jack Ratele for the final lap in the mile relay against Santa Barbara.

Aztec Ray Eastman leads the pack for a first in the 880 against Santa Barbara with a time of 1:59.2. Mike Muirhead (SD), Law (SB), and Jon Orvick (SD) follow.

Ron Harrington, SDSC pole vault veteran, clears the bar with inches to spare.

TRACK

Making a fast break from the blocks are Aztec sprinters Jon Orvick, Dick Sweet and Larry Shipley.

Jack Ratelle breaks the tape for SDSC, bringing home a first against Santa Barbara.

On the eve of the Del Sudoeste deadline, Choc Sportsman's track team has found that two weeks of fair weather was just what the doctor prescribed for a spring tonic, causing some surprising performances.

Following the losses to UCLA in a triangular meet and to Camp Pendleton in a triangular affair, the Aztecs bounced back to down three CCAA opponents in dual meets in eight days.

Edging Santa Barbara, 70-61; Long Beach State, 96-23; and Los Angeles State, 89-42; Sportsman was pleased with Jim Carmean's performances of 24.2, 23.5 and 23.7 in the 220 low; and sprinter Dick Sweet's comeback with 22.3, 21.5 and 21.7 in the 220.

Others who have added power to the thin clad ranks are pole vaulter Jim Terry with 13-foot 6-inch mark, frosh Eddie Hartman with a 49.5 in the 440, and sophomore Ray Eastman with a 49.2. The latter also turned a 1:58 in the 880. Sam Mankins upped his mark to 6 feet 4 inch in the high jump; freshman Bobby Ball managed three leaps over 22 feet in the broad jump.

With milers Bill Gallaher and Clarence Hamren and Bob Gallaher, Eddie Fabisak and Bob Larsen in the two mile race, Sportsman now figures he has an excellent chance to take second place, behind powerful Fresno State, in the CCAA championships hosted this year by Los Angeles State on May 3.

Aztec distance men Bob Larsen, Bill Gallaher, Bob Gallaher and Ed Fabisak.

Hurdler Jim Carmean, a newcomer from Chaffey J.C. turned in an excellent job in both the sprints and low hurdles.

CHARLIE SMITH,
Varsity Baseball Coach

Jerry Smith's early season showing made him a heavy favorite to cop the batting championship again.

BASEBALL

The Aztec baseball team was in the midst of a tight pennant race when the yearbook went to press. Coach Charlie Smith had a large turnout, heavily packed with experienced ballplayers. Last year's big sluggers have still been keeping up their swatting. First baseman Jerry Smith was leading the team in hitting with .381, while Tommy Rinks, shortstop, was leading the club in both home runs and runs-batted-in.

Left-hander Dave Cavallin, a senior, was the mainstay of the pitching staff, but four strong right-handers have been carrying a large portion of the pitching load. Don Leigh, Steve Evans, Bob Imlay, and Bob Lusky rounded out a strong mound corps.

Butch Flaming celebrated his best year with the bat in '58 and capped the year with his picture in Sports Illustrated magazine.

Sophomore pitcher Bob Imlay can best be described as a strong-armed fastballer. After 30 1/3 innings' work, he has allowed less than one run per game.

Bob Schertzer, Aztec second sacker, takes a bit of a ripple at the ball. The action occurred during the Fresno game and a nice cut it was as the ball sailed clear of the screen in right field. Catcher Mark Cameron waits for the pitch that never got there.

Workman of the pitching corps, Don Leigh toiled for 49 2/3 frames while allowing less than three runs per game.

A little later Bob was bounding homeward to receive congratulations of teammates. Action occurred in the bottom of the fourth.

Peppery Marty Nellis muscled into an infield that was supposed to be set. He was San Diego's leadoff batter much of the time.

Dave Cavallin was the only lefty on the Aztec staff and was used largely as a fireman. Dave, a senior, was the only real veteran Smith could build his mound crew around.

After dropping the season opener to Occidental, 7-4, the Aztecs came back with two stomps. Naval Training Center fell, 20-1, and Redlands University was clubbed, 15-2. Jerry Wayt paced the Aztecs in the Redlands game, collecting a double and three singles in four trips. SDS amassed 20 hits in that game. Camp Pendleton took a close one, 3-1, though Don Leigh and Bob Lusky combined to throw a 4-hitter against the Marines. Pepperdine lost 5-3, and Redlands was smashed again by the Aztecs, 14-0. MCRD, one of the toughest amateur teams in the Southwest, shut-out SDS, 3-0.

Hal Brown singled with the bases loaded in the sixth inning of the Stanford game to provide the margin of victory, 5-3. Don Leigh was the winning Aztec pitcher. After victories over Pepperdine and Tempe, league play began. The supposedly stronger Cal Poly squad proved not improved enough, losing the CCAA curtain raiser, 4-0. The only loss so far in the league came at the hands of Fresno State in the first game of a double-header, 6-2. SDS copped the nightcap, 5-3.

Bob Imlay and Dave Cavallin combined their talents to shut out N.T.C., 11-0. Jerry Smith smashed out three hits and scored four runs to lead the Aztecs.

San Diego moved into second place behind Long Beach in the CCAA by edging Fresno in their third meeting, 6-5. It was a see-saw game all the way, with no team holding a big lead at any point. After Tommy Rinks had hit his second homer of the day and Bob Schertzer's circuit clout, the Aztecs felt easier at the end of six innings, leading 5-3. Fresno came right back with the tying runs in the seventh and it stayed 5-5 until the eleventh inning. Catcher Flaming, who took over for Larry Schimpf behind the plate in the ninth, scored the winning run in the bottom of the eleventh on Rowland Hill's hit. Bob Imlay got credit for the win.

Jerry Smith slides into third base just a second after the Fresno third sacker tagged the bag for a forced out.

Coach Smith has a highly competent catcher in Art Flaming, who hits with consistency. Jerry Smith and Tom Rinks are the mainstays of the infield. Bob Schertzer is a sharp-fielding second sacker, and SDS cannot complain for lack of talented depth. Jerry Wayt, a new power hitter; Marty Nellis; Rick Sutherland; Larry Roberts; and Hal Brown round out the tight inner defense.

Bud Gardner, right fielder, led the team in hitting for part of the season. Rowland Hill, another .300 hitter, and Chuck Wagner fill the other outfield positions. Basically, this is a young team with a great future. There is good hitting all through the line-up and an adequate defense. This talent coupled with a deep pitching staff, accounts for San Diego's fine showing thus far.

Tommy Rinks broke up many a game with his hits out of the park. Tom was a shortstop par excellent, and an All-CCAA selection.

Freshman Steve Evans was one of the most sought after prepsters in the area. At press time he was 2-0 and a nifty 1.37 ERA.

Rowland Hill was named All-CCAA as a soph in '57 and was driving toward a repeat this year. Rowlie patrolled center field with deadly accuracy.

Larry Roberts was one of only two seniors on the club. He shared third base with Rinks and Wayt, and also coached.

Cal Poly played a double-header against the Aztecs, and dropped both contests as San Diego retained its hold on first place. Bob Lusky shut out the Mustangs in the opener on four hits. Cal Poly's defense fell completely apart, making eight errors, and seven SDS base hits gave the Aztecs the 12-0 win. In the second game, two big eruptions gave San Diego another romp, 20-1. The Aztecs scored six runs in the second inning, and in the fourth, 13 men crossed the plate. Don Leigh pitched that win, giving up only two base hits.

MCRD came to play the Aztecs again, but this time they could not get the edge. Ex-Aztec Jim Pyles and former Padre Floyd Robinson both tagged homers for the Marines who were still unable to stop the Aztec offense, and the game was called at 7-7 in the 12th inning.

RUGBY

The Aztec Rugby Club, in its first season, took first place in the Southern California Rugby Association. San Diego scored five consecutive victories over El Centro (15-0), Ontario (20-14), Pomona-Claremont (8-6), Pasadena (17-0), and UCLA (14-11), before losing to the Eagle Rock Athletic Club (9-3). State's upset victory over Santa Ana (8-0) in the season finale clinched the championship.

Jim Hansen led the team in scoring with 17 points. Ernie Trumper followed closely with 15, and Bob Shank and Jack King scored 12 and 11 points respectively.

The Rugby Club was organized by Ian Richardson. Through the efforts of Rey Fackrell, Don Magee, Hansen, and faculty adviser Fred Quiett, the schedule was lined up and a fine squad was rounded into shape.

Rugby, "father of modern football," is a rough game — a cross between soccer and hockey. Any of the thirteen players may score with the ball, making for fast-moving action. The players do not have the football padding, either, putting the stress on skill rather than force. Scoring is pretty easy for the fan to pick up. A "try" is comparable to a touchdown and is worth 3 points. A conversion is a free kick after a try and is worth 2 points. In the event of a serious penalty, a penalty kick is allowed and, if scored, is worth 3 points.

Because of the surprisingly successful season the Aztecs had, it appears that rugby will have a very favorable future on Montezuma Mesa.

CROSS COUNTRY

San Diego State had another very successful year in Cross Country, under the guidance of Coach Choc Sportsman. Led by team captain Bill Gallaher and freshman Ed Fabisak, SDSC ran against outstanding competition and consistently did well.

In the Conference, State won its seventh straight Cross Country title, with Long Beach coming in second. Against Long Beach, Ed Fabisak, Bill Gallaher, and Clarence "Sonny" Hamren broke the tape together, tying for first. Bob Gallaher and Bob Larsen finished fourth and fifth. This was the third time that San Diego has had a perfect score of 15 points, getting the first five places.

In the National Championships, Bill Gallaher finished third, Fabisak ninth, Hamren 27th, Bob Gallaher 35th, and Bob Larsen 56th, giving the Aztecs fourth place in over-all standings. In addition to the above-named, Dick Parker, Dave Sucec, Darrel Sager, and Arnie Steele received varsity letters.

WRESTLING

HARRY BROADBENT, wrestling coach

The wrestling squad finished its season with an even 7-win 7-loss record. Coach Harry Broadbent was handicapped by the losses of two top wrestlers, Dan Dierdorff and Jim Bodenhamer. Nonetheless, his squad progressed throughout the season and managed to accumulate 231 points to its opponents' 232. Isao Horiye, in the 115-pound class, was SDS' top matman, losing only two matches, the last one after he had worked himself to the finals of the Pacific Coast Inter-Collegiate Wrestling Association.

Don Bebb showed very strong in the PCICWA finals, and placed fourth in his division. Bebb and Horiye gave the Aztecs seventh place among 16 entrants. Gary Naiman, Dale Cummings, Tom Bucknall, Jim Hull, Jim Thompson, Jim Starke, and Jim Hilton round out the 1958 wrestling team. Though it was basically an inexperienced squad, hard work and the power of the veterans enabled the Aztecs to whip opponents such as N.T.C., Stanford, San Francisco State, and Long Beach State.

DR. FRED KASCH, gymnastics coach

Top gymnast Stan Levin flips on the parallels.

The gymnastics team, coached by Fred Kasch, started out on a very successful vein, but the draft and scholastic ineligibilities cut the team's manpower, and performance fell off at mid-season. Nonetheless, San Diego State came out of the slump, finishing the season in fine fashion, copping the Pacific Southwest AAU meet.

Stan Levin and Gary Albright were the backbone of the squad. Among the highlights of the season was the defeat of Los Angeles City College early in the year. It was the first time that SDS had topped LACC in gymnastics. Most of the Aztec firsts went to Levin and Albright, but among the newcomers, Wayne Bell, Phil Thomas, and T. C. Podvin showed great promise. The squad was composed of numerous young members who should make the gymnastics team of the future strong and deep.

Wayne Voigt performs on the still rings.

TENNIS

San Diego State had cinched the CCAA tennis championship as the Del Sud went to press. Al Olsen, former Padre and major league pitcher, was the Aztec mentor. He was gifted with a young and talented squad and most of the team should return next year. Bill Jack played first man, though Tad Yamaguchi had the most successful year, undefeated to date. The season opener was impressive, with San Diego defeating Fresno, 8-1, Bill Jack, Tad Yamaguchi, Steve Clarkson, Dick Smith, Neil Olson, and Steve Gordon had no trouble winning all the singles matches. Gordon and Yamaguchi along with Clarkson and Smith took two of the three doubles. Long Beach the next victim, 8-1. Early in the season the Aztecs got real hot and shut out Santa Barbara and Tempe in successive matches. Pepperdine was the only squad to defeat the Aztecs. San Diego's record at press date was 11 wins, 1 loss, and its conference record stood at 8-0. Yamaguchi's consistent play was backed up by Neil Olson, who had lost only one singles. Tad and Neil teamed up late in the season for doubles and were undefeated. Backing up the first six men were Lee Swennes and Dick Graham, who both saw considerable action on the courts in both singles and doubles.

GOLF

FRANK SCOTT, Varsity Golf Coach

Team captain, Jerry Davee

The San Diego State Golf team had a 5-won-6-lost record as Del Sud went to press. The squad was coached by Frank Scott. Ron O'Connor and team captain Jerry Davee were the top returning candidates, and there was good talent ready to back them up. Howard Donnelly and Bob Gietzen were experienced and capable, and with Tom Rupnick, Kevin Fleming, and Mike Holmgren, the Aztecs' 1958 entry was strong and deep.

In the first meet of the season, Los Angeles topped SDS, 34-20. Howard Donnelly was the only Aztec to win, shooting 74. Ron O'Connor shot a 73 and Donnelly another 74, as USC smashed State, 41-13. State wiped out Riverside, 49-5, but the pressure was off and so were the scores. Mike Holmgren was low with 74; O'Connor shot 75.

Long Beach didn't prove much tougher, but O'Connor shot his best round to that time, finishing with 71. SDS took the match, 40-14. Donnelly shot 71 and O'Connor 72, but the Fresno State Bulldogs were strong against the SDS "secondary," winning 37-17. O'Connor shot a 70, Rupnick a 74, and Ron Wickstrom a 75, as the Aztecs barely edged Colorado, 28-26. In the last game to date, Los Angeles again topped the Aztecs, this time, 33-21. Mike Holmgren's 75 was the best effort for SDS, with O'Connor, Gietzen, and Fleming close behind.

CADET COL. ROBERT B. BENBOUGH
Wing Commander of the Air Force ROTC

Another year has flown by for the Air Force ROTC, another year of training, learning, and activities. Capt. Irvin B. Wilson, USAF, commandant of cadets, led the corps through a picnic at Big Oak Ranch in the fall, the annual AFROTC Military Ball in March, and a beach party in June.

In mid-December the local detachment was host to the ninth annual Regional Arnold Air Society Conclave. More than forty delegates from fifteen colleges and universities in the West attended the conclave. In late March, San Diego sent delegates from the Arnold Air Society to a big combination conclave at San Francisco.

Next fall, a curriculum change is planned with the inclusion of present-day subject matter on the proponents of space vehicles and satellites. A big organizational change came this year with the unifying of the cadet corps into a single Group from a two-Group Wing. Col. Lloyd A. Walker, USAF, Professor of Air Science, said the regrouping was necessitated by a decrease in the number of cadets in the program, which has been brought about largely by the extension of the contract tour of duty in the Air Force for pilots from four years to five. Cadets receive commissions as Air Force second lieutenants in pilot, navigator, technical, and administrative categories.

Since the days when man flew "by the seat of his pants," the United States Air Force has come a long way: from the Aeronautical Division of the United States Army in 1907 to the main arm of today's national defense.

On a national scale, the Air Force ROTC came into its own with the National Security Act of 1947, which created the Department of the Air Force and the USAF itself. The current program includes more than 100,000 students at about 180 colleges and universities in 46 states, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. Among this list, San Diego State's detachment ranks high. The national headquarters of the AFROTC are at the Air University at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala.

ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY

The Arnold Air Society is a national honorary organization for outstanding upper division AFROTC cadets. The main goals of the Society are the promotion of citizenship in the air age and the support of the air power concept. This year the group sponsored the activities of Angels' Flight, an open-bid formal dance, a Christmas party for underprivileged children, and they were the hosts to AFROTC representatives from California, Arizona and Utah at an Air Force conclave on the San Diego State campus. The fall Squadron Commander was Robert Benbough, and the spring Commander was James Battenfield.

ANGELS FLIGHT

Angels' Flight is one of the newest organizations on the San Diego State campus. It was organized in 1956 by the Arnold Air Society to serve as a woman's auxiliary to the AFROTC. The members of Angels' Flight are the AFROTC representatives at various functions, serve as hostesses at teas and luncheons, and participate in many other campus and civic activities, as well as scheduling many social events. The president of the group this year was Carol Norman. Vice-president was Simone Lambiotte, secretary was Carole Linthicum, and Margie Lucas was treasurer.

SABRE AIR COMMAND

The Sabre Air Command was chartered in 1955 to promote interest in the AFROTC program and to develop leadership in basic air cadets. Sabres held an impressive initiation banquet for 24 new members the latter part of the fall semester. This group contributes to the precision drill team that represents San Diego State and the AFROTC in competition and parades. Major Ed Blessing was the commander of the Sabre Air Command, and Captain W. L. Warren was the faculty adviser.

The Air Force ROTC detachment on the San Diego State campus holds drill period — "leadership laboratory" — at 11 a.m. Thursday in the Aztec Bowl. The detachment was host to a regional Arnold Air Society Conclave in mid-December in which more than 40 delegates from 15 colleges and universities participated. The local detachment is among the top on the West Coast.

The San Diego State Drill Team marches briskly down El Cajon Blvd. during the Homecoming Parade with S/Sgt Jay Miller, center, carrying the unit banner.

In June, the graduating class of 1958 looked back with satisfaction — and possibly a measure of relief — upon four years of successful work. From the date of enrollment in the fall of 1954 to commencement in June of 1958, the class has been very active.

Under the direction of Jerry Schultz, the Freshman Class presented an outstanding Blue Book Ball. In its sophomore year, spearheaded by Ole Kittleson, the class staged a sparkling Musical Comedy to the immense enjoyment of the Aztec student body. The class proved itself again in its junior year by presenting another successful Blue Book Ball for the graduating seniors.

The year of 1957-58 was the most important one for the class, which was determined to make it the most successful. To promote a stronger feeling of class loyalty, the seniors gave a Senior Social in the form of a ranch party. It was hoped that this affair would set a precedent for a long-needed senior tradition.

The year slipped by, ending with baccalaureate services on the sixth of June and commencement on Friday the thirteenth. The class bid its final goodbye with a "Senior Farewell" party the evening of commencement.

BLUE KEY

Blue Key is the top honorary service organization for men on the campus. Upper-division men are selected for membership on the basis of leadership, scholarship, and service to the students and faculty. The group assists with Homecoming and other school activities, sponsors the international debate, holds an auction each semester, and strives to foster good campus relations in all areas of college life. The fall officers were Frank Alessio, president; Larry Townsend, vice-president; and Norman Gaskins, secretary. The spring officers were Norman Gaskins, president; Bill Langdon, vice-president; and Chris Quartly, secretary. The adviser is Dr. John Ackley.

CAP AND GOWN

Mary Ann Donaldson

Cynthia Hunter

Marjorie Iwersen

Nancy Kirkhuff

Membership in Cap and Gown is limited to the outstanding fifteen women in the senior class. All the members have excelled in giving service to the school in at least three major areas, plus maintaining a high scholastic average. Among the annual activities of the group are the spring Alumni Banquet, teas each semester for outstanding women leaders on the campus, and formal tapping ceremonies. Nancy Olds was chancellor of the group this year. Betty Towner was vice-chancellor, Marlene Franck and Judy Parslow were secretaries, and Nancy Kirkhuff was treasurer. Mrs. Margery Warmer was the adviser.
